Mouth-To-Mouth Breathing Saves Girl From Drowning

Rescuers Delayed In Sunday Traffic

Mouth-to-mouth breathing saved a two-year-old Terra Linda girl, nearly drowned in a swimming pool, yesterday while Sunday drivers delayed arrival of a fire department resuscitator.

Mark Hathway of 1402 Las Pavadas Avenue, Terra Linda, producer of the "Marshall J" show for children on television, snatched his daughter Kristi from a friend's pool after she tumbled in shortly before 3 p.m.

While he tried mouth-to-mouth breathing to revive the apparently lifeless child, a San Rafael police emergency vehicle was delayed by Sunday drivers in taking a resuscitator to the scene.

The Hathways were visiting with the Larry Robinson family at 4 Las Csas Drive in Loch Lomond. Kristi, wearing a rubber lift belt, was playing with older children in the pool.

Mrs. Hathway called the children from the pool, removed Kristi's life belt and asked the older children to watch her.

A few minutes later, Hathway glanced out the window and saw his daughter floating, apparently lifeless, on the water's surface. He dived in and carried her to the bank while a call was placed to police.

Fireman Martin Rohrs started for the Las Casas Drive home with a resuscitator. Police Sgt. Louis Foster left in a police car to assist.

Wrote Foster later in his report:

"It should be noted that the Sunday drivers who were using Third Street and San Pedro Road failed to yield the right of way to our red light and siren. Very few pulled to the side of the road to let our emergency vehicle pass."

Fireman Rohrs arrived first and began administering artificial respiration. When the police car arrived, Mrs. Hathaway and the child were taken in it to San Rafael General Hospital.

En route, the child recovered her breath and began to cry loudly. After her lungs were emptied of water at the hospital, she began to breath normally and was returned home.

Her mother reported she was in "fine" condition today.

IT WILL SOON BE OVER — Such programs as this class in modeling at San Clemente School will come to an end Aug. 11—two week earlier than intended—because of a budget pinch in the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation program. Twin Cities Recreation Program Cut Short 2 Weeks

Two weeks has been cut off the Larkspur-Corte Madera summer recreation program so that a curtailed program can be continued next school year, recreation director William Gordon said today.

He blamed the cutback—which will end the activities on Aug. 11 instead of Aug. 25—on refusal of the Larkspur School District to allot funds for the program for next fiscal year.

"We had to do something," said Gordon. "Last week at a special meeting we decided to take $1,500 from the 1961-62 budget and use it to keep the program going from next September through June. That means the summer program will end two weeks sooner."

1,000 SERVED

Lack of the school district funds will also mean cutting 11 weeks off next year's program, said Albert E. Kogler, commission chairman.

It may have to be cut back even farther, he said.

The recreation program, which serves more than 1,000 children and adults during the year, is supported jointly by the Town of Corte Madera, City of Larkspur, and the school district. The two cities have agreed to put up $4,250 each for the next fiscal year—the same as for this year. The school district, which gave $1,500 for fiscal 1961 and $1,750 for fiscal 1962, has notified the district it will no longer contribute in cash.

The $1,500 diverted from the summer program, said Gordon, would have paid two weeks' salaries for 15 staff members—mostly college students—at $50 per week. Instead, it will be used to pay five directors to lead the school year program.

Kogler said the joint recreation program has about 800, mostly children, enrolled in fall, winter and spring, and 500 to 600 in summer.

Programmed activities are held at the grounds of Larkspur-Corte Madera, Neil Cummins, San Clemente and Henry Clay Hall School grounds, Eastman Hill in Larkspur and the Corte Madera Town Park "and any other outside areas wherever recreational activities might be held," he said.

The Greenbrae School grounds will be used after current work there is completed, he said.

CAN'T AFFORD CASH

"The school board maintains that other educational purposes demand that it re-evaluate its contribution to the joint recreation commission," Kogler reported.

Said school district board chairman Pauline Secor:

"Mr. Kogler has given a fair statement of our position. We already contribute the use of the school grounds and services. We contribute mimeograph materials and pass out their notices."

The "water bill alone" for such things as recreation and Little League activities is a big item," he declared. She added:

"Trustees for the past five years have been saying we couldn't afford to contribute cash in addition."

Programs last spring ranged from sewing at Eastman Hall, taught by assistant director Elizabeth Bouissevain, to sending 48 children on a ski and toboggan holiday at Soda Springs near Donner Summit.

Other categories included tennis, physical fitness, naturalist activities, the Rock Hound and Pebble Pup Club and the Funsters. The latter is a group of 60 older persons who go on trips out of the county.

Activities this summer range from ceramics and arts and crafts to softball. The events were to have run to Aug. 25 but have been cut to Aug. 11 because of the fund shortage.

A teen-aged girl helping direct one of the programs said: "Wait until the parents get their kids home two weeks earlier this year!"

American League Wins All-Star Tilt

CHICAGO (AP) — A three-run homer by Rocky Colavito of the Detroit Tigers plus four baggers by Pete Runnels of Boston and Leon Wagner of Los Angeles powered the American League to a 9-4 victory over the National League in their All-Star baseball game here Monday before 38,359 at Wrigley Field.

It was the first American League victory in the last six All-Star games. The Nationals won the first All-Star game this year 3-1.

CONGRESS VOTES AIR BASE FUNDS

$352,000 Approved For Maintenance, Supply Works

Maintenance and supply improvements totalling an estimated $352,000 have been authorized for Hamilton Air Force Base by Congress, Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) announced today.

They include a new $30,000 area search radar, a $225,000 parachute and life raft repair and maintenance shop, and a $97,000 concrete ammunition storage magazine.

The action providing for them consisted of House and Senate approval of this year's Military Construction Authorization Bill. Pres. John F. Kennedy is expected to sign the bill into law later this week.

Miller said appropriations to pay for the newly authorized work probably will be made later this year. Construction is scheduled during the next 12 months, he added.

Hamilton officials said today that the area search radar is so new that it is still under design. It will be located on the east side of the present runway, about one-third of the distance from the north end. Completion of all three units is expected late next year.

The ammunition storage is a new design for this area. It will be located in the ammunition storage complex at the north side of the base.

The parachute and life raft maintenance shop will replace an inadequate facility not now in use. The new one will be at the south end of the runway on the west side.

Car Rolls Over; Driver Booked

A Petaluma mechanic drove his car into a spectacular rollover on Highway 101 early yesterday, went to Marin General Hospital for treatment of cuts, then was booked on a charge of intoxication in an automobile.

Edwin J. Townsend, 41, was southbound at 1:30 a.m. half a mile north of Miller Creek Road. As his car crested a hill it failed to hold a left curve, ran off on the right shoulder, skidded and rolled. It wound up on its wheels 80 feet east of the road.

Townsend suffered cuts of the left hand and nose.

Marin Teen-Agers Questioned On Use Of Dangerous Drug

A 17-year-old Mill Valley youth is scheduled to appear in Marin County Juvenile Court tomorrow on charges of illegally possessing dangerous drugs which he gave to his 15-year-old San Rafael girl friend.

The drugs are Nebutol pills—known as "yellow jackets" to habitual users of barbituates.

The youth arrested because Antoin Adams, an investigator for the district attorney's office, noticed the girl staggering as though drunk on Friday at D and Taylor Streets in San Rafael. She was found to be under the influence of barbituates, which she said the youth had given her.

The youth was questioned over the weekend and finally admitted to juvenile hall authorities that he had obtained the capsules from a source in San Francisco.

INQUIRY CONTINUES

It was first thought that he might have information on the recent rash of medical burglaries in Marin County, as newspaper clippings of the burglaries were found in his possession.

Juvenile authorities have not completely discounted this theory and investigation was continuing today.

The girl, who had been placed in a San Rafael home as a ward of the juvenile court, told investigators she had taken five pills given her by the youth. She was treated at San Rafael General Hospital after Adams took her to her guardian's home.

CAPSULES FOUND

The girl's guardian telephoned police that several yellow and white capsules had been found between the cushions of the sofa where she sat while being questioned by Adams.

She then admitted at the hospital, according to investigators, that the capsules were given to her by the youth, whom she had met Friday afternoon in Corte Madera after baby sitting in Mill Valley.

MAYBE THEY THINK SCHOOL CAN'T RESUME

Union School on the Point Reyes-Petaluma Road can't ring the old school bell when classes open in September, unless someone finds it.

Sheriff's Deputy William S. Christensen said vandals did a neat job of climbing onto the roof, lowering the 100-pound bell by rope, and carting it off. Nothing else is missing or damaged.

Mrs. Eleanor Pomi of 5225 Redhill Road, who lives near the school, noticed the bell was missing and called the sheriff yesterday afternoon.

Prison Guard Wins Honor Medal, Cash

A medal for valor and a $150 cash award were presented today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to the San Quentin prison officer who gave the alarm in the July 2 escape attempt by six Death Row inmates.

Cited at Sacramento was Sgt. Rob B. Kardell, who ignored threats at gunpoint by the convicts to alert other officers to the break attempt.

Governor Brown praised Kardell for his courage and dedication to duty.

Also cited was Officer Alvin E. Banta, who broke up a disturbance last January at Soledad prison, where three inmates were stabbed, one fatally.

"Californians can be justly proud of the kind of men and women who work in state correctional institutions," Brown said. "Such men at Sergeant Kardell and Officer Banta deserve the respect and admiration of the Californians they serve and protect."

Optimists To Give Clubhouse To Mill Valley

The Mill Valley Optimist Club will turn over ownership of its newly constructed clubhouse on Project 17 to the city of Mill Valley Aug. 7.

Dedication of the building will be at the dinner at 7:30 p.m. at Sabella's restuarant, chairman E. Andrew Lax and Dr. James J. Diederich announced.

The $12,500 clubhouse was built by members of the club from funds raised mainly through the club's annual Youth-O-Rama event. It is 800 square feet in area, has a double set of showers for local and visiting ball teams plus rest rooms for the public. It is used in connection with the adjacent Optimist ball park.

There are plans, Lax said, to build bleachers and put on finishing touches to the building with funds from this month's Youth-O-Rama.

Find No Trace Of Missing Woman

An investigation by Marin County sheriff's deputies has revealed no trace yet of a 29-year-old Greenbrae woman who has been reported missing for two weeks.

Nanci Boyer Chambers may have gone to Schellville, in Sonoma County, her father, Ralph O. Boyer of 1 Corte Cordova, Greenbrae, told sheriff's deputies. Investigators checked the Schellville area but found no evidence of the woman. Schellville is the last known address of her estranged husband, William F. Chambers.

Muir Woods National Monument attracted its highest number of visitors of the year this weekend with 4,420 yesterday and 2,964 Saturday, according to Supt. Frederick M. Martischang.

Developers Sue Mill Valley Over Zoning

Mill Valley developers who wanted to put in 250 apartment units at Enchanted Park Point next to the proposed Mill Valley Small Craft Harbor are suing the city for rezoning the area to commercial-recreational.

The complaint, filed this morning in Marin Superior Court, contends that the rezoning is unconstitutional. The suit asks the court to compel the city to issue a building permit for apartments and for damages.

Owners of the land are John A. Alexander, Sherrill Broudy, Eugene C. Harter and Warren R. Odenthol.

The owners contend they applied for a permit for apartments on May 8, but the city enacted an urgency ordinance on May 28, changing the zoning from multiple residential to recreational.

The rezoning as enacted at a special meeting with no prior public notice, the suit alleges.

Court Turns Down Plea For Abortion

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Television star Sherri Finkbine's attempt to legalize her planned abortion was thrown out of court today.

Superior Court Judge Yale McFate's dismissal of the suit means Mrs. Finkbine and her husband, their doctor and their hospital have no guarantee against prosecution if they go ahead with a previously announced plan to prevent the birth of a baby they fear will be deformed.

It was not known immediately what action the pretty young mother of four and her school teacher husband would decide upon.

Arizona law prohibits abortion unless the life of the prospective mother is in peril.

The couple wants the abortion because "Miss Sherri," star of a Phoenix TV kiddie show, took thalidomide, a drug blamed for malformation of babies, mostly in Europe.

The Finkbines say they don't want to risk such a birth.

Japanese Cherry Blossoms May Bloom At New Marin Civic Center

Cherry blossoms similar to the famous ones at Washington, D.C., may one day bloom at Marin's new civic center at Santa Venetia.

The Marin Nakayoshi Club, a non-profit corporation which just filed articles of incorporation in Sacramento, plans to donate 100 cherry trees to the county if the trees will fit in with the landscape plan for the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed civic center.

President Masao Segi of 31 Juno Road, Belveron Gardens, announced he has appointed a committee headed by William Shimizu of Mill Valley to contact the county to see if the cherry tree idea is feasible.

The proposal to donate the cherry trees is one of the first projects undertaken by the newly formed group. The club is an outgrowth of the group which this year put on a classical Japanese dance program at the Marin Art and Garden Center and which has sponsored the annual Bon Odori festivals in past years.

The first directors of the new organization are:

Kiyoshi Kuwatani of 1530 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon; Zenkichi Yokota, Mill Valley; Nike Noguchi, Mill Valley; James Hirai, Tiburon; George Murata, Corte Madera; Roy Okubara, Mill Valley; Akira Otsuka, San Rafael, and Walter Takeshita, San Anselmo.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Severed Foot Sewed On By Surgeons

BOSTON (UPI)—Doctors have found a pulse and good blood circulation in a truck driver's foot which was severed in an accident and then sewed back on by a 15-man surgical team.

With guarded optimism, Massachusetts General Hospital yesterday issued a bulletin which said, "Circulation was restored and the foot is warm and has a good pulse."

However, the success of the operation on Joseph Scimone, 24, of Revere remained in doubt.

"The result of this surgical procedure will not be known for some time and there is still the possibility the foot will have to be amputated," a hospital spokesman said. "We'll just have to sit and wait. His doctors will fully examine the foot sometime in the mid-week."

Scimone's left foot wash smashed and torn from his leg Saturday when his motorcycle crashed into an automobile.

The foot was rejoined to the ankle in a delicate six hour operation. It was the second such operation here. Two months ago at the same hospital, surgeons rejoined the train-severed right arm of 12-year-old Somerville Little Leaguer Everett (Red) Knowles.

A second series of operations on the Knowles boy was scheduled to start this week to rejoin nerves in the arm and in an effort to restore its ability to function.

Spain Relaxes Censorship

MADRID (UPI)—The Spanish government called attention to its recent steps toward relaxation of control over the press in an official note published yesterday in all Madrid newspapers.

The note, distributed by the Ministry of Information and Tourism, said Spanish newspapers were free to publish editorial commentary which did not reflect the official policy of the government.

The move was the work of new Spanish minister of information and tourism Manuel Fraga Iribarne, who took office early this month after a Spanish cabinet shuffle.

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK, Wyo. (AP) — Storm-battered mountain climbers from four Eastern states made ready today to descend from Grand Teton Peak on which one of their comrades perished.

Mexican Official Dies

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Ignacio Soto, 72, former governor of Sonora, Mexico, died of a heart attack at the home of relatives, the Mexico Consulate reported today.

Consular officials said Soto died Saturday at the home of relatives while he, his wife, Rosa, and their daughter, Rosa Maria, were en route to San Francisco and the World's Fair in Seattle, Wash.

Soto had been ill for two years and had been a patient at the Scripps clinic in La Jolla, Calif., until Thursday.

Funeral services for the former governor and business executive will be held in Hermosillo, Mexico.

Guerrillas Hold Algiers

ALGIERS (AP)—Algerian guerrilla troops held Algiers today after a bloodless coup believed to favor dissident Vice Premier Ahmed Ben Bella's quest for power.

Several known opponents of Ben Bella were arrested. Among them was Amar Oussedik, political commissar of the Algiers autonomous zone, which the guerrilla leaders said was dissolved.

Premier Ben Youssef Ben Khedda and officials of his government were not molested.

Two thousand guerrillas of the Wilaya Zone No. 4 surrounding Algiers occupied the city at dawn Sunday. Their commander, 27-year-old Col. Si Hassan, said he hoped to form a junta of wilaya commanders to head the government until elections are held in the newly independent nation. Elections for a constituent assembly are scheduled Aug. 12.

JFK Back At Work

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy, ending a weekend of rest and relaxation at Cape Cod, returned to Washington today to map strategy on future nuclear test ban talsk with Russia.

Kennedy planned to meet early this week with Arthur H. Dean, chief U.S. negotiator at the disarmament talks in Geneva, but so far no date for the Dean meeting has been set.

The president's jetliner landed at Andorews Air Force Base, Md., at 10:12 a.m. EDT. He immediately boarded a helicopter for the short hop to the White House.

Track Defect Blamed

STEELTON, Pa., (UPI)—Pennsylvania Railroad authorities today investigated the possibility that a misaligned track caused the crash of a nine-car "Baseball Special" Saturday night.

The train bound from Harrisburg to Philadelphia plunged into the Susquehanna River killing 19 persons and injuring at least 120 more.

The "Special" carrying baseball fans, including women and children, was travelling about 65 miles an hour when the last three cars tore loose and somersaulted down an embankment into the river.

IN DAD'S FOOTSTEPS

The frail, young singer approached the bandstand in Disneyland Plaza and asked the Elliot Bros. if he could do a guest appearance Saturday night. They said yes and he stepped to the mike and belted out the familiar Cole Porter tune "At Long Last Love" as if the famous songsmith had written it just for him. The singer was Frank Sinatra Jr., aged 18. Frank Jr., may talk it over with Frank Sr., but the Elliot Bros. say they would hire him if his name was Joe Smith. (AP Wirephoto)

Motorist Accused Of Waving Gun At Driver

A South San Francisco motorist was booked in Marin County jail late yesterday on a charge of waving a gun at another driver while both were headed south on Highway 101.

William Patrick Caulfield, 33, an airline mechanic with a 13-year record of arrests, was nabbed by the California Highway Patrol on complaint of Tomas Baca, 29, an Oakland welder. Baca signed a citizen's arrest warrant.

Baca said Caulfield pointed a revolver at him after repeatedly cutting in front of Baca's car between Sonoma County line and Novato.

In the car with Baca were his wife, three small children, and another man. Riding with Caulfield was Joan Lorraine Dussourt, 27, of San Francisco, a collection agency employee. She said she gave Caulfield the bullets for the gun, the highway patrol reported.

WAVED REVOLVER

Baca said Caulfield repeatedly passed his car, then slowed in front of him. The last time, he told Highway Patrolman Richard O'Brien, Caulfield waved the revolver at him out of the car window.

Baca stopped to report to the two highway patrolmen at Novato at 4 p.m. They pursued Caulfield's car and forced him off the highway near Hamilton Air Force Base.

Behind the back seat, they found a .38 caliber snub-nosed revolver.

The officers said Miss Dussourt told them the gun was between her and Caulfield in the front seat as they drove south from Petaluma. "I had the bullets in my purse," she said. "He asked me for them. I handed them to him."

Caulfield claimed Baca, driving slowly, pulled in front of him as he attempted to pass on the left, forcing him to pass on the right. When it happened again, he waved the gun "to scare him," Caulfield said.

ARREST RECORD

Sgt. Walter Pudinski, of the Highway Patrol said Caulfield has a record of arrests dating back to 1949 on charges ranging from disturbing the peace to assault with a deadly weapon. He once drew a one-year suspended sentence, according to State Bureau of Criminal Investigation records.

Caulfield was charged with displaying a weapon in a threatening manner. Released to appear in Marin Municipal Court on Wednesday, he asked sheriff's officers, "Where's my gun?"

Impounded for evidence, they told him.

Blast Victim May Keep Both Eyes

A 19-year-old San Rafael youth, injured Saturday by an exploding dynamite cap, may be able to keep both eyes, but it is too early to tell whether he will have vision in the right eye, a specialist said today.

Attendants at San Rafael General Hospital said Charles Harold Holland's general condition today was good. He lost his thumb and the first two fingers of his left hand and both eyes were injured.

Police said the youth, son of Mrs. Richard S. Holland Sr. of 115 Park Street, San Rafael, was experimenting with the dynamite cap at his home when it exploded.

A San Rafael eye surgeon said Holland suffered blast burns of the cornea in his left eye, but no fragments from the cap penetrated it. The doctor termed the right eye injury serious, however. He said fragments penetrated the eyeball, causing considerable damage.

Lucas Valley Officer Honored At Retirement

Lt. Col. Albert Adatto of 2244 Juniperberry Drive, Lucas Valley, was awarded an oak leaf cluster to the Army Commendation Medal during retirement ceremonies at the Presidio of San Francisco last week.

A Signal Corps officer in the 40th Artillery Brigade, Colonel Adatto hopes to return to teaching history, which he did at Toppenish, Wash., before entering the Army in 1942. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the North Solomon and Philippine campaigns. He later served as historical research editor with the Eighth Army occupation forces in Japan and as historian with U. S. forces in Austria from 1952 to 1955.

SOMEBODY GOOFED

White House Letter Puts Edinburgh In England

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP) — A geographical goof in the White House has a number of Scots irked.

Someone in President Kennedy's office addressed a letter: "Edinburgh, England."

Edinburgh is, of course, the capital of Scotland.

Calling a Scotsman an Englishman is like calling an Alabamian a Yankee.

What happened was this:

A Scottish newspaper, the Weekly Scotsman, is running a series on Scottish clans. When the story of the clan Kennedy was published, the editor sent a copy to the White House.

The editor was delighted to receive a letter from President Kennedy's office, thanking him for forwarding the information about the clan Kennedy.

But the address on the envelope was: "The Weekly Scotsman, North Bridge, Edinburgh, England."

That did it.

Under a large headline the current issue of the paper says: "Oh Mr. Kennedy—not a very good way to make friends and influence people."

Work Starts Soon On Bank Branch

Low bidder for construction of Bank of America's new Montecito Center branch in San Rafael is Zoellner Construction Co. of Ross, J. A. Carrera, bank vice president for branch and international operations, announced today.

Plans call for a 75 by 117-foot building on a leased site in the Montecito Center at Third Street and Grand Avenue. Work on the project is expected to begin within two weeks.

Main construction will consist of concrete tilt-up panel walls and wood framing, with stone veneer on the face of the building. When completed early next year, the building will accommodate five officers and 13 tellers.

Parking will be provided by the shopping center.

A 25-foot portion of the air-conditioned building will be sublet for store purposes until needed for branch expansion.

Novato Council Meets

The Novato city council will hold an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the community building to study the 1962-63 budget.

Stockholm Gives Ike Tumultuous Reception

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — By the tumultuous reception that former president Dwight D. Eisenhower received when he arrived in Stockholm, it was apparent that swedes were willing to let bygones be bygones.

But to make sure that no ruffled feelings still existed because of a remark he made two years ago about Sweden's social security system Eisenhower promptly and frankly delivered a public apology.

"I sincerely apologize for having wrongly criticized the social security conditions in Sweden," he said as he and Mrs. Eisenhower arrived yesterday morning for a four day visit.

And last night the public apology was broadcast on the Swedish state radio in a program in which Eisenhower originally was scheduled to appear.

The 71-year-old ex-president was referring to a remark he made while president in which he did not refer to Sweden by name but alluded to it as a nation with a "high rate of suicides and alcoholism." The statement stirred up a hornet's nest in Sweden.

Eisenhower said that since he had thus spoken he had "met many countrymen who have visited your country and have told me that it was quite wrong. I admit my error and I hope that settles the controversy."

But even before the apology Swedes were cheering "long live Eisenhower" and police had to control the admiring crowds at his press conference.

The highlights of today's program for the Eisenhower party, which includes their two grandchildren, was a visit to the 17th century warship "Vasa" that was recently raised and a reception tonight by the Swedish-American society.

Tomorrow the former president will climax his visit with an address to the Education for International Understanding conference.

When he arrived here Eisenhower appeared firm, fit and untired by his visit to Denmark. Demonstrating his old ability to charm an audience, he responded to a question about the toughest decision he had to make during his long career by saying:

"When I worked up enough courage to ask Mamie to marry me."

Rattler Killed Under House At Marinwood

A rattlesnake with seven rattles was killed at a Marinwood home last night, and there may be more around, sheriff's deputies warned today.

Deputies William Johansen and Arthur V. Menjou said parents should warn their children before letting them play in the hills, especially in the Marinwood area.

George M. Clarkson of 2563 Las Gallinas Avenue reported at 5 p.m. yesterday that he had just killed the snake. It was about 30 inches long and had seven rattles plus a button.

The rattler was first spotted by Mrs. Nellie Clarkson about 1 p.m. Deputy Menjou arrived in time to see it slithering under the house.

Menjou said the snake climbed on a ledge under the house where he could have shot it with his revolver. However, it was in direct line with the heater, and Menjou could not fire without damaging the heater. After about an hour, Menjou left, leaving instructions with Clarkson to shoot it with his .22 caliber rifle as soon as the snake moved away from the heater.

ON WAY UP

Turncoat Living Down His Past

By NORMAN KEMPSTER

OLYMPIA, Wash. (UPI)—How long does it take a man to live down the charge that he betrayed his country?

For Otho G. Bell, it was about 10 years.

Bell was one of several soldiers who were dishonorably discharged from the Army after being accused of collaborating with the Chinese Communists in a Korean prisoner of war camp.

For years, Bell said, he was shackled to the brand "turncoat."

But during the past year or so, things have improved for Bell, his wife Jewell and their four children.

The 31-year-old Bell said he had encountered "no prejudice whatever" in recent months. Just one year ago, he had said he would "rather hang" than continue life branded as a turncoat.

He said he makes his living doing odd jobs but he added, "when there is work to be found, I'll find it."

Bell has built a wooden house on some land he purchased in a rural district east of here.

"There's still a lot to be done," he said motioning to the unpainted walls and cluttered interior. "But I'm getting there."

Bell remained in Red China for 18 months after the end of the Korean War. But he steadfastly denies that he was a traitor.

He said he hoped that his case would be brought to court eventually so that he would get the chance to clear his name.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled that Bell, and others who remained with the Communists, could not be tried by courts martial on collaboration charges because the Army lost jurisdiction when it discharged them.

In another case, the Supreme Court ruled that Bell was entitled to $1,455 prisoner-of-war pay. That was more than a year ago, but he said he still has not received the money.

"The lawyer says I'll get the money sometime," he said, "but I haven't seen it yet."

Bell is a native of Mississippi, but he said he has decided to make Washington State his home.

By many standards, Bell still is far from successful. But he feels that he is on the way up.

"I was drawing relief for a while," he said, "but I don't need it now."

Russ Boast Of Navy, But Show Nothing New

LENINGRAD (UPI) — The Soviet Union boasted of a string of naval achievements ranging from Polaris type submarines to torpedoes with nuclear warheads during annual Navy Day celebrations here yesterday.

But Western observers said they found no evidence of such modern weapons in the official display.

The annual naval review here included only about 15 ships, less than half the number put on display a year ago.

The largest was the cruiser "Kirov", built after World War II. There also were three destroyers, some minesweepers and torpedo boats, but the main emphasis in the press, in the review here and on posters was Soviet undersea power.

There were four conventional submarines anchored in the Neva River for the review, and a fifth coastal type cruised up and down the line during the celebrations which lasted more than three hours.

"The most interesting ship in the river was the old "Aurora", one western expert said.

He was referring to the ancient cruiser whose crew touched off the Russian revolution in 1917.

Last year the display here included three missile-firing detroyers which western observers had not seen before. This year's display included no innovations.

Much of the festivities were devoted to such water sports as skiing, swimming and sailboating.

Adm. Ivan I. Baikov, commander of the Leningrad Naval District made the opening speech in which he repeated the Soviet claim to have developed rocket-armed, nuclear-powered submarines.

Adm. F. V. Zozulya claimed in an article in Red Star that rocket weapons had been generally introduced into naval practice. He said "atomic power, radio, electronics and cybernetics have sharply raised the fighting possibilities of the Navy which is now capable of solving difficult problems in the struggle against the enemy in any area of the ocean."

Ransomed Cuban Rebels Arrive In U.S.

MIAMI (UPI) — Three prisoners of the Fidel Castro government, ransomed for $175,000, returned to the United States yesterday and described treatment of rebels captured in last year's abortive invasion as "unbearable."

But they said morale among the imprisoned members of the Bay of Pigs invasion force is high, despite shabby treatment and illness.

A cheering crowd of about 2,500 Cuban exiles welcomed the three prisoners when they landed at Miami International Airport, their freedom purchaed through donations from family and friends.

They were Jorge Govin, 33, son of the former owner of the Havana Newspaper El Mundo; Ernest Fitzgerald Williams and Fabio Treyere Aguilera.

"The situation of the prisoners is unbearable," Govin said. "Physical cleanliness disappeared months ago."

He said many of the prison ers are ill, suffering from a variety of illnesses. Govin said there is no medicine and very little drinking water is made available by Castro jailers.

"Morale is very high," Govin added. "The Castro regime's thugs have not broken us."

The ransomed prisoners compared Cuban militiamen with Gestapo troops of World War II.

"They rout us out of bed at midnight and march us to the courtyard to search our cells," Govin said. "Actually, they do this so they can steal what little food our families and friends, through great hardship, have sent us."

The only food served in the prisons is beans and black coffee, he said.

A fourth ransomed invader, Alfredo Gonzalez-Duran, is expected to be returned to the United States in the near future. The Castro government said his release has been held up by a delay in the transfer of ransom money.

5 YEARS WORK GONE

Would-Be Missionary's Dream Goes Up In Smoke

SAN JOSE (AP) — In 1957, George F. Stamper, a former Oklahoma cowboy and B-29 bomber pilot, got an idea. He would build a 14-ton, 60 foot model of the four-masted, 16th century British man-o-war, HMS Elizabeth Jones.

Stamper, 38, a pipe fitter and lay preacher for San Jose's East Side Church of Christ, bought the ship's plans from the British Museum for $2.50.

He built his boat in a vacant lot, putting much of his energy and $5,000 into the project. He figured she would be ready in 1964.

Then he would haul it 10 miles to San Francisco Bay. From there he would sail it to the Gulf of California and set it up as a missionary base of operations.

By Sunday morning, the boat's hull was three-quarters completed and its interior was started.

He was back where he started today, however. Sunday night, Stamper's 20th century dream out of the 16th century went up in smoke.

Firemen say they suspect neighborhood children set the fire.

Faulty Brakes Blamed For Mishap

Sharon Freeman, 35, of 344 San Pedro Road, San Rafael, was treated for minor injuries at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday after the brakes on her car failed and it plowed into another vehicle at Third and Irwin Streets at 3:54 p.m.

Lee Elmo Roden, 45, of 1217 Irwin Street, San Rafael, who had stopped his car at the traffic light when it was hit by that driven by Mrs. Freeman, complained of neck pains.

Mrs. Freeman was cited for faulty brakes and not having her driver's license in her possession.

Bracero Use Declines

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico is sending far fewer migratory workers — Braceros — to the United States than it did last year.

During the first six months of 1962, officials said, only 83,000 Braceros were authorized to leave for the United States. The total for the year is expected to be no more than 300,000, far short of last year's figure.

A greater use of local labor by U.S. farmers and poorer crops were blamed for the sharp decrease in Mexican labor contracts.

Secret Service Agents Hunt $ Printing Plant

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Secret Service agents today were searching for the printing equipment used to print $434,000 in bogus $100 bills seized at the time of the arrest of a private investigator and an engineer.

Guy Spaman, special agent in charge of the local office, announced yesterday the two men were arrested Saturday along with the counterfeit money and the plates used to print it.

Arrested were Paul Gilberto, 33, a former Washington, D.C. metropolitan policeman and owner of the Gilbert & Gilbert private detective agency here, and Rolland M. Marshall, 44, an aircraft quality control engineer.

Spaman said the two were arrested as they were taking the money to a prospective buyer. The bills, which the special agent said were above average quality in engraving, but used below average paper, were wrapped in packages of $10,000 each and were in a large suitcase.

All bills carried the same serial number, but Spaman said none apparently had been passed.

Both men protested they were innocent yesterday at their arraignment.

Bail was set at $10,000 each pending a preliminary hearing Aug. 18.

Gilberto posted bond and was released. He said through his attorney that he became involved in the case while investigating a divorce matter.

Marshall's attorney refused to comment.

Spaman said the arrests climaxed several months of investigation by the Secret Service with the support of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

SEC Accuses A.F. Mining Exchange

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in an unprecedented action, today accused the little San Francisco Mining Exchange of unsavory practices and threatened to close it down to protect the investing public.

Only 42 corporations' stock is listed on the exchange and only 20 of these issues are actively traded. Only six of the exchanges 13 regular members actually engage in trading.

The SEC charged the 100-year-old exchange with letting its members "distribute substantially worthless securities to the investing public."

It also alleged that the exchange lacks adequate listing and delisting standards and adequate legal counsel.

Exchange membes, including officers, have been involved in sales of stock in violation of the 1933 Securities Act and have made false and misleading statements in promoting such stock, the SEC said.

Helsinki Youths Riot

HELSINKI (UPI)—Mounted police last night broke up a crowd of demonstrators estimated at 5,000 who tossed rocks at vehicles carrying delegates to the communist - backed World Youth Festival.

Bus windows were shattered and store windows broken by the anti-communist demonstrators in downtown Helsinki. It was the second incident of violence in as many nights connected with the conference.

Soviet newspapers charged that the United States and West Germany were behind the demonstrations and said the loyalty of anti-festival rioters had been purchased by the "Central Intelligence Agency and the State Department."

Sonoma Livestock Brings Top Prices

New price records for beef, lamb and pork were set this year in the junior livestock auction of the Sonoma County Fair at Santa Rosa, which closed yesterday.

Bidders paid $53,462.22 for 107 beef animals, 244 lambs and 64 hogs, $5,461.93 over last year.

Other records set by the 25th silver jubilee fair included attendance (185,000) and parimutuel wagering ($3,640,289) or a daily average of $364,029).

Two Marin County youngsters were among winners in judging of 4-H dairy cattle. Marsha Bacaglio of Novato took a second in the Holstein category and Eric Angress of Marshall won two third places for Jerseys.

Next year's fair, again 11 days with 10 days of pari-mutuel racing, will be July 17 through 27.

Troops Stand By

MEXICALI (UPI)—Members of the National Liberation Movement took part in a peaceful political rally last night as 1,300 Federal troops remained on call in case of violence.

The movement members were part of a crowd of 2,000 persons who heard speeches by three state Agrarian League candidates in the Aug. 5 elections.

Troops were sent here last week to prevent the National Liberation movement's threat to take over Mexicali if its candidates were ignored in the election.

State To Help Guardsmen Find New Jobs

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown asked the State Department of Employment today to give special help to California National Guardsmen returning from active duty during the Berlin crisis who want to find new jobs.

Maj. Gen. Roderic L. Hill, state adjutant general, told a Governor's Council meeting that some of the 1,500 men to be released in August will find their jobs have disappeared.

"We feel their going on active duty has prevented worse crises to our nation," Hill said. "We need anything government leaders can do."

Irving Perluss, director of employment, said he would direct employment departments branches to pay special attention to the problems of returning national guardsmen.

Hill said that despite a federal law requiring guardsmen's jobs to be held for them, he has heard of situations where jobs vanished.

Assistant Manager Of Cafe Pleads Guilty To Thefts

The assistant manager of Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon, charged with stealing $2,000 from the cafe, pleaded guilty to grand theft today in Marin Superior Court.

John Neal McInnis, 37, admitted his guilt to Judge Joseph G. Wilson. The judge set sentencing for Aug. 20.

The cafe manager complained to the sheriff that McInnis had vanished on March 12 after saying he had deposited $2,039 in the cafe's bank account. The money was not deposited.

He disappeared from his apartment at Bermuda Palms Motel in San Rafael and was gone for about three weeks. He was arrested on April 14 when he returned to the county in an overdue rented car.

Nudists Pick Royalty

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Western Sunbathing Assn., a nudist group, has a new king, queen, prince and princess.

According to a spokesman, the royal members were chosen during a weekend conference in an event similar to a beauty contest, except that more was considered, like suntan.

The winners were identified only as Jerry of Los Gatos and Maureen of Castro Valley as king and queen, and Gary of Los Angeles and Kathy of Colton as prince and princess.

Soblen Gets Offer Of Asylum

LONDON (AP)—Robert A. Soblen has been offered asylum in an unnamed European country, friends said today.

The man under life sentence in the United States as a Soviet spy cannot take advantage of the offer without the approval of Home Secretary Henry Brooke. Soblen jumped $100,000 bail in the United States last month and fled to Israel. He was expelled, and slashed himself with a steak knife July 1 as a plane neared London en route to the United States.

The 61-year-old psychiatrist Sunday lost a second effort to seek refuge in Israel; the Cabinet unanimously upheld the Interior Ministry's refusal to let him enter as an immigrant.

Meany Urges Income Tax Reductions

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany urged Congress today to cut income taxes, especially in the lower brackets, effective Sept. 1.

Meany told the House Ways closed session, it should approve such a cut as a necessary measure, expiring next summer, but follow it up with a permanent reform of the income tax system.

Meany's recommendations it was learned, amounted to an updated version of the memorandum he sent President John F. Kennedy June 4, recommending a tax cut concentrated in the first individual income tax bracket.

Three Hurt In Two Novato Mishaps

Three people were injured in two separate traffic accidents in Novato Saturday night.

Sandra Lee Dudek, 24, of 852 Railroad Avenue, Novato, backed her car out of a driveway at 1566 Novato Boulevard at 10:18 p.m. It was hit by a pickup truck driven by Patrick Phillip Catteyson, 38, of 1340 Cambridge Street, Novato police reported. Miss Duket was kept overnight for observation at San Rafael General Hospital, then released apparently uninjured.

Hugh David Hove, 21, of the 78th Field Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, lost control of his car on a curve on South Novato Boulevard just north of fire station No. 2, Novato police reported.

Hoven's car hit a pole, recrossed the highway and went through a ditch, before stopping more than 500 feet from where he lost control, police said.

A passenger, Mischelle Morgan, 17, of 311 Devon Drive, San Rafael, was thrown from the car. She was kept overnight at Novato Hospital and released. Another passenger, Merelyn Simons, 17, of 1540 Buchanan Street, Novato, was treated at the same hospital for a cut on the left leg.

Trade Barriers Smashed

BRUSSELS (UPI)—The six nation European Common Market today smashed many trade barriers on farm products in one of the most significant moves since the group came into existence.

The agreements, which came into force at midnight, were called by common market agricultural official Sicco L. Manshodt as a "most important movement in the history of the Community."

The trade easing resulted from a 24-day session which concluded on Jan. 14. It raised fears in gricultural exporting nations outside the six that the common farm policy would hurt their European trade.

Market experts felt, however, that in the long run the common policy will prove a better solution than if the various systems of national protective and trade regulating measures had remained in force.

The noon meeting was called at a special, unannounced meeting last Friday night at which a compilation of requests presented on behalf of the San Rafael City Employees Assn. by attorney William J. Morgan is to prepare for the meeting an analysis of impact on the budget of these requests as compared with salary recommendations submitted by the city manager.

Father O'Meara Hospitalized

Rev. George A. O'Meara was reported in good condition at Notre Dame Hospital, San Francisco, where he was taken this morning after he collapsed while saying early mass at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael.

Father O'Meara has suffered heart trouble for some time. He was taken to the hospital by United Ambulance at about 7:30 a.m. Attendants said he was fully conscious, resting comfortably and "in very good condition" later in the morning.

Father O'Meara came to St. Raphael's as assistant pastor in 1930 and became pastor in 1937.

Painters Still Striking

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — About 1,100 painters in six northern California counties were still on strike today.

Members of Painters' Union Local 487 voted 2 to 1 against an proposed agreement Saturday reached with painting and decorating contractors.

The agreement, worked out by union and association bargainers, would have given the men an 85-cent-an-hour increase over the next three years, plus a 25-cent-an-hour premium for working with rollers.

The roller issue had been an obstacle in earlier talks. The painters contended that their use would cut the number of jobs. Contractors said that hand brushes were boosting time and costs.

The striking painters, who earned $2.90 an hour under the old contract, are in Sacramento, El Dorado, Nevada, Placer and Sierra Counties.

Condemned Killer Seeks 15th Stay

CHICAGO (UPI) — Celebrated defense attorney Louis Nizer asked the State of Illinois today to spare ethe life of condemned killer Paul Crump because of "the miracle of his rehabilitation."

Nizer, one of the nation's most famous courtroom lawyers, came from New York to plead for Crump's life before an extraordinary hearing of the Illinois Pardon and Parole Board.

Crump, 32, is scheduled to die in the electric chair Aug. 3 unless Gov. Otto Kerner, acting after the pardon board's recommendation, stays the sentence. The 32-year-old condemned man awaited the verdict in an isolation cell at Cook County jail. He had requested the solitary confinement so that he might spend his last days in meditation.

Nizer, standing in a packed, tense hearing room, said the defense concedes that Crump was "an illiterate, beastly, animalistic criminal" at the time he was convicted of killing an armed guard in a 1953 holdup on Chicago's south side.

"The more the prosecution dwells on this the more it helps to prove the miracle of his rehabilitation," Nizer said.

At his own request, Crump was placed in solitary confinement Saturday. He asked to be moved to an isolation cell 20 steps from the electric chair "out of a desire to use what may be these last moments of life in meditations."

Crump, a 32-year-old Negro, based his 200-page petition for clemency on the claim that he has been rehabilitated during his nine years behind bars.

He has won 14 stays of execution of the death sentence, five more than best-selling author Caryl Chessman, who was sent to the gas chamber in California.

Slogans such as "Spare Crump," and "Do away with the Chair" appeared in Chicago's loop yetserday, scrawled on the walls of buildings. Crump, like Chessman who tried his hand at writing while behind bars. His novel, "Burn, Killer, Burn," is to be publishd this year.

Among those who supported Crump's appeal for clemency were former warden Clinton T. Duffy, of San Quentin.

Yanks Leave Thailand

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — The last 1,800 U.S. Marines have left Thailand but America's Navy chief says they can move back just as fast if needed to defend the country against the Communists.

Departure of the Marines Sunday left the defense of Thailand to the 2,000-man U.S. 27th Infantry Wolfhounds, skilled in jungle fighting, and the 90,000-man Thai army, U.S.-trained and equipped.

The American forces moved into Thailand in May when pro-Communist guerrillas in Laos had swept to the Thai border. That was the guerrillas' last big push before the formation of a coalition regime pledged to take Laos out of the cold war.

Spinal Defects Termed Overlooked Illness Cause

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Have you tried everything for your aches and pains and still found no cure? The reason you continue to suffer may be an overlooked cause of illness.

Recently, for example, German medical men reported spinal defects in 86 of 100 ulcer patients. These doctors also reported remarkable recoveries of health when the spinal defects were corrected.

Chiropractors, for many years have been calling attention to spinal defects in persons with ulcers, heart trouble, arthritis and many other ailments.

What is the relationship between the spine and health? All cells, organs and muscles are controlled by the nervous system. The spine protects the nerves as they flow from the brain to various parts of the body.

A spine that is out of line often pinches vital nerves as they branch out through spinal openings.

Chiropractors are specialists in correcting spinal defects and should be consulted at least once a year.

Governor Sets Pace On Sierra Pack Trip

By JERRY HARRELL

KINGS CANYON NATIONAL PARK (AP) — "I set a pretty good pace, didn't I," said Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday as he dismounted his horse.

Brown had just led a mounted group of close friends, state and federal officials and newsmen in from a three day pack trip into the rugged sierra country of Kings Canyon National Park. The ocsasion was the annual outing Brown takes into the mountains for a combined inspection and vacation trip with the State Fish and Game Department.

"I haven't felt so relaxed in a long, long time," said Brown as he rested at the corral at trail's end — saddle weary, sunburnt, and mosquito-bitten, but obviously refreshed by three days of fishing, swimming and relaxing beside remote Range Lake.

8,000 FEET

The party packed into the mountin lake, elevation 8,900 feet, on Thursday after a motor tour of Kings Canyon.

The only out-of-ordinary incident occurred during a break in the ride when a horse nudged State Park Commissioner Alfred J. Stern of Palo Alto into a creek.

After a steak dinner and a brief rest by the campfire Brown turned in early the first day. He and several other state officials had tents. Most of the party slept out in sleeping bags.

Next day the 57-year-old governor was up early and on the lake for fishing and swimming —the first member of the 35-man party to take a dip.

"Come on in, fellows, the water's fine," said the governor as he emerged.

The governor — an enthusiastic if not accomplished angler—caught four eastern brook trout about 10 inches long.

"Boy, did you see that cast?" he exclaimed as he threw his line into the water after several hours practice.

MANS RADIO

Saturday, Brown was at the edge of the lake manning a portable two-way radio for an inspection feature of the trip—an airborne planting of fish in the lake. The Fish and Game Department's twin-engined plane made a successful pass and dropped 2,500 bay trout into the lake.

"Great Show, this is the governor speaking," said Brown over the radio, startling Warden pilot Al Reese of the Fish and Game Department.

The Giants-Dodgers baseball games on transistor radios, poker games in the eating area and the telling of fish stories by the campfire occupied the evenings.

The party was up before dawn yesterday for the long and dusty ride back.

With Brown in the lead, the long string of pack and saddle horses covered 10 miles in just over three hours — good time for rugged High Sierra trail.

State Moves To Acquire Lake Shores

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has announced the state will acquire a 300 foot-wide strip of land for recreational purposes around all reservoirs it constructs in the future.

The new policy, disclosed Saturday, was drawn up for the governor's approval by William E. Warne, director of the Department of Water Resources. It takes advantage of a state law authorizing the department to acquire land for recreation at state water projects.

Brown emphasized in his announcement that the development of commercial facilities at the water's edge would not be precluded providing they fit in with the over-all recreational plan.

"This sound land acquisition program will ensure that the recreational benefits of a water project are fully realized and are available to all of the people of California," Brown said.

"The 300 foot strip is especially important in providing access for the public and for control and protection of recreation areas and developments," he added.

CAMANCHE DOOMED

Final Fandango For Mother Lode Town

By KENNETH REICH

CAMANCHE (UPI) — The doomed town of Camanche came to life for one last time yesterday.

A $33 million dam is going in a few miles down the Mokelumne River. When it is completed sometime next year, the town will be under 30 feet of water.

But last night some 450 friends and visitors joined the 50 remaining residents in a "last dinner" which turned into a party reminiscent of Camanche's most glorious days as a leading California gold town.

One again the community echoed to youthful, playful voices and the joking of oldsters. Again almost a dozen saloons were operating, indoors and out.

But amidst the gaity there was a distinct note of sadness which grew as the evening progressed. For the residents, many of them in their 70s and 80s, couldn't forget that next year the town will no longer exist.

"We'll miss it here," said Beula Scates, the last postmistress. "It's a peaceful place. Maybe, when the water comes we can come back and look at an island sticking up and say 'I used to live right there.'"

A century ago a Sunday visitor to Camanche would have seen hundreds of Chinese laborers walking up and down Main Street, making way only for an occasional horse race. The Wells Fargo stage might have been loading some of the $15,000 in gold dust shipped weekly to the San Joaquin valley.

17 SALOONS

In the 1860s the community boasted four grocery stores, two clothing shops, two blacksmith shops, a meat market, two hotels, two drug stores and 17 saloons.

Today it consists only of a bar, a general merchandise store with gasoline pumps, a post office, a school, closed in 1957 when it go down to six pupils, and an old Catholic church.

Disasters took their toll. Fire struck Camanche in 1873, destroyed 30 houses and caused $15,000 damage. A cloudburst followed, inundating most of the community. It never grew back to its former size.

Only two dwellings on Main Street date later than 1885. The population over the years has decreased from a peak of about 1,500 to its present 50.

"I'd rather see the place flooded out than go the way of Lancha Plana or Poverty Bar," said Andrew Cavagnaro, 61, a native. The two nearby towns he mentioned are nothing but ruins now.

The easy-to-find gold in the region was exhausted rapidly. Then came the Chinese, who worked for almost nothing, to dig gold ore out of the rocky ground.

"Most of the people who made money left," according to Paul Lewis, local historian. "They didn't settle down. However, there were some who were never able to go back East. Some left sweethearts who didn't wait. They never went back home. They died in the county hospitals."

LOW GRADE ORE

Even today, gold is more than a memory in Camanche. The surrounding land contains low grade ore, but with the price of gold held at $35 an ounce it is too expensive to mine. And there are rumors that the old Catholic church stands on high grade ore, which was never mined.

"If the price of gold had gone up to $100 an ounce two years ago, there never would have been any dam," said Fred Lyons, who has lived in Camanche all his 50 years.

The East Bay Municipal Utility District, builders of the dam, first drew up plans for it about 12 years ago. But townspeople found it hard to believe it would ever come in.

Apolio Arata, 77, who was born in Camanche and has never left, said, "we survived so many disasters. One thing about Camanche was it was a good cash proposition. A mighty lot of peddlers came here and few lost their money. It seemed like when one thing dropped, something else would pop up."

The bitterness which arose when it first became clear the dam would be built apparently has largely dissipated. The inhabitants seem resigned to the inevitable.

To Mrs. Nettie Cavagnaro, 85, the festivities yesterday recalled the days of the Chinese.

"I can see the old Chinamen," she said. "Whenever there was a funeral all of us kids would run about and get excited and they'd always get us brown candy. It always turned out to be a pretty merry time for us.

Kuchel Asks Tax Relief For Nisei

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Thomas Kuchel (R-Calif.) plans to introduce this week legislation to exempt from federal income taxes money paid to Japanese-Americans placed in relocation camps during World War II.

Kuchel said Saturday the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) added "insult to injury" by ruling that compensation claims for property losses by the Nisei were subject to income tax.

"I deny that Congress ever intended such a travesty," said Kuchel. "The awards represent but a fraction of the loss.

Adventist Critics In Protest Meeting

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Contraversy over alleged segregation in Seventh Day Adventist schools continues at the church's world conference here.

Yesterday, while the group's 49th world conference was electing a Negro as a vice president of the church, nearly 1,000 persons were gathered at a nearby protest meeting.

The new vice president is Frank L. Peterson, 69, of Washington, D.C. He formerly served as an association world secretary of the Adventist Church and also was secretary of the church's regional department, an organization established in 1909 to care for the interests of Negro members of the church.

The protest meeting was called by Dr. Frank W. Hale Jr., a Negro professor at Ohio State Central College, who has been leading a floor fight at the church convention in an effort to have the delegates pass stiffer pro-integration measures.

Hale and his associates said they had brought demands to cease discrimination against Negroes to the Washington, D.C., headquarters last year, but that the Adventist high command has done almost nothing toward rooting out segregation and "racial bars" in employment at church institutions.

Yesterday's meeting of the rebels was addressed by Estelle Barnett of Columbus, Ohio, 73-year-old president of the Christians Benefit Association Inc., a group of about 1,000 [illegible] ist women in the Middle West.

In an undisguised attack on Reuben Figur, wrold president of the Adventists, and on Peterson, she declared:

"If they are un-Christian, that is no reason for us to be un-Christian . . .

"When they have hatred in their hearts, they have never been converted."

Hale was the next speaker at the protest meeting and listed a series of sweeping charges against the church hierarchy, alleging discrimination in many sectors.

"We do not have two Gods," Hale declared. "We do not have one white God for the whites and one black God for the blacks . . .

"It is the church that sets the standard, and the community follows."

The world council public relations director, Howard B. Weeks, last night commented that "action has been and will be taken on every request of the colored people that is submitted to headquarters through its regular organization.

"We expect with patience and persistence to find solutions to all these racial problems."

Missing Guard Found In Car; Ran Off Road

A San Quentin Prison camp correctional officer who vanished Saturday near Weott, Humboldt County, was found safe yesterday.

Sgt. Ralph Edward Dascombe, 51, left Camp High Rock near Weott at 9:20 a.m. Saturday to get three prisoners who had been fighting a fire 12 miles northeast of Covelo.

He passed through Covelo at 1 p.m. Saturday. That was the last anyone saw of him until yesterday afternoon when he was found in his car, which had left the road, said Irving Ritter, officer of the day at San Quentin.

Ritter said a call from the prison camp said Dascombe concluded after running off the road he might as well wait until morning to be found.

On first learning of Dascombe's disappearance, the prison flashed newspapers and told the California Highway Patrol, which engaged in a widespread search in fear of possible foul play.

Dascombe served at the main prison from 1946 until April 6, 1960, when he was transferred to the Humboldt County camp.

Giants Still Have Good Chance For Pennant—Dark

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Managers Walt Alston of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Alvin Dark of the San Francisco Giants were in agreement today on one point—the National League race has not yet been decided.

Dark led his beaten Giants northward to rest during the All-Star Game break with the pointed reminder that the two clubs still have seven more games to play.

And Alston continued to worry about his pitching despite excellent performances by his hurlers during the three-game sweep against the Giants which drew a Chavez Ravine record three-day total of 157,115 paid attendance.

The Dodgers climaxed the series yesterday with an 11-1 victory that gave them a four-game National League lead. It was the biggest win of the series after two-run victories in the two previous games.

And it solidified Don Drysdale's position as the league's leading pitcher with nine straight wins and a 19-4 record. But big Don's job was made easy by the work of his teammates at the plate.

The batting hero of the series was Frank Howard who homered in each game and drove in 12 runs in the three encounters, topped by yesterday's effort in which he batted in five runs on five hits.

Howard now has driven in 52 runs in 37 games since he returned to the starting lineup June 19 and he raised his batting average to .321 but Alston drew the most pleasure from the big outfielder's two hits off San Francisco reliefer Stu Miller, including his homer.

"The fact that Howard was able to get two hits off Miller indicates to me he finally has learned to wait for his pitch-hurt. We made mistakes against es," Alston said. "But don't give all the credit to the hitters. We got good pitching, too."

Dark agreed with Alston on the importance of a mound staff by saying, "pitching is baseball. Without it you are Howard and they hurt us."

The Giants used 13 pitchers in the three games without gaining a win. Starter Billy O'Dell took yesterday's loss although he worked less than a full inning. But he gave up six runs and that was enough to let the Dodgers coast home. Five Giant pitchers gave up 16 hits.

About the only satisfaction the Giants could draw from the final game was provided by Willie Mays' 32nd homer which kept Drysdale from recording a shutout. Mays had gone one for 11 prior to his seventh inning homer. Orlando Cepeda had three singles in four times at bat but none of them came with men on base.

Howard got the Dodgers off to a quick start by driving in two runs in the first inning, enough for a winning margin. And Tommy Davis had three hits in five times at bat to stretch his batting streak to 11 games.

Maury Wills stole his 51st base in the eighth inning to post the best National League mark in thefts since Max Carey of the Pittsburgh Pirates stole 51 bases in 1923.

While the Giants and Dodgers rested awaiting the resumption of National League play Wednesday, four players from each club were in Chicago today for the second All-Star Game. For the Dodgers, the players were pitcher Johnny Podres who replaced Drysdale because the big hurler worked yesterday, Wills, catcher John Roseboro and Tommy Davis. The Giants contingent was composed of Mays, Jim Davenport, Cepeda and pitcher Juan Marichal. Felipe Alou remained behind because of a bruised instep which he was to have X-Rayed today at San Francisco.

Worst Blow To Giant Pride, But Some Think They'll Come Back

CONNOLLY

The Giants have had a temporary eclipse and there is little we can do about it save sharpen up the offense, tighten the defense and hope the pitching staff has had enough labor pains for the season.

From the screaming and whistles that are starting to blow you'd think the Queen Mary was coming into the San Rafael channel. A lot of baseball prophets have lost the joints in their index fingers from pointing out mistakes of everybody connected with the Giants.

Regardless of what the season's fortunes have for the club, the ouster movement can't help starting, and where it will end, nobody knows. It could cause a traffic mess with new athletic faces coming and going; others getting the axe, while a certain group might have their paychecks operated on for 1963. It's all nice fun, but the fans might die laughing if it keeps up too long.

When you come to think of it, nothing too much happened against the Dodgers, excepting the Bums made the Giants look bad, feel bad and get mad at themselves over the nightmarish series that so far it the worst blow to Giant pride in 1962.

"WHY THAT fellow Alvin Dark is no friend of Giant pitchers. He goes around pushing 'em in and out of the ball game like a guy fiddling around with a slot machine," one abusive critter told me.

But I refuse to buy that reasoning or worry about his phase of the Giant management. Alvin Dark can't bat, run or think for his players who haven't been doing much of anything.

The Giants needed someone who could restore Willie Mays' batting eye; another guy who could think for Willie McCovey when he was running the bases; a good mind reader who could diagnose pitcher Jack Sanford's ailment and determine whether it is his legs or his heart that slows him up after such great starts. We could also use a panel of experts to explain the hidden kinks that makes Juan Marichal look good one day and awful the next. And another panel of second guessers to explain why Billy O'Dell fell apart at the peak of his pitching form. And while we're at it what happened to the powerful Orlando Cepeda? Maybe that $46,000 a year salary changed his outlook on life. It is all quite a mystery and hard to understand.

THERE ARE some considerate fellows who think the Giants can and will comeback. But how far can they come back or are they willing to settle for second place right now?

Studying the siesta series for the Giants, about all you can say they tried their best but it wasn't good enough. And unless they can beat the Dodgers, they can't win the pennant.

It is no secret that the Dodgers are a running, smarter ball club than the Giants who positively looked amateurish, hit feebly and were outclassed in every department of play. The Giant bench, if you can call it such, looked horrible. They have two members of the crew who should be in the minors, and the lower minors at that.

YOU'D THINK the Giants might copy the style of the Dodgers who are always shooting for one run. But no, it's whole hog or none for the club.

Bench panic struck several times in the three-game series. It was so noticeable that pitching changes became a frightening gesture.

But as they say in show biz, the game must go on. Starting Wednesday at Candlestick Park the Cubs move in for two day games followed by Pittsburgh on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The Phils and Mets follows for two games each and then comes the big showdown once more when the Dodgers come back on Aug. 10, 11 and 12 for a clash that might wipe out the ghastly memory of what has just happened.

As they say in the lingo of the ring—the Giants are down now. How long will it take before they get off the floor and flatten the other guys?

Starts To Get Rough For 49ers This Week

MORAGA (UPI)—It starts to get rough around the San Francisco 49er camp today.

Coach Red Hickey planned to run his charges through two-a-day short scrimmages starting today and leading up to a full game-style scrum Saturday.

Workouts up to now have just been to get the boys in condition and to give the rookies a chance to learn the plays before they get buffeted about by the veterans.

Hickey's two major problems probably are to find a pass-catching replacement for the departed R. C. Owens and to find some linebacking talent to replace Bob Harrison and Gordon Kelley, who were traded during the winter.

End Bernie Casey has been starring in drills and could be the player to take up the slack caused by Owens' departure.

Hickey is shifting offensive tackle John Thomas to linebacker and got the good news during the weekend that number 2 draft choice Ed Pine from Utah would not quit the team after all.

Pine said Saturday in his Reno home: "I had a problem. I came home. It is worked out now. I'll swallow my pride and get in the swing with the club."

Pine said when he quit that he was "not ready" for pro ball. The coaching staff still thinks the 230-pound Pine has the goods and can help out with the team.

Novato Wins Title

Novato All-Stars scored three times in the fourth inning last Saturday, to squeek by the Mill Valley American League All-Stars, 3-2, and win their second straight District 3 Little League baseball title and represent the county in the sectional tourney next weekend in Concord.

Mill Valley's National League took third place in the District tourney winning the opening game over San Rafael American League.

Mill Valley's American League opened the scoring in the first inning, when Robert Grant reached first on an infield boot. He came around to third base, scoring on a single by Bob Paterson.

That was all the scoring until the fourth when Novato erupted with a rally of its own.

BIG RALLY

Three straight walks, along with a couple of Mill Valley miscues accounted for three runs, with Tim Thomas, Greg Moore and Charlies Day denting the plate for the Novato All-Stars.

Mill Valley scored its final tally in the top of the sixth frame, when Fred Crebassa went to first after being hit by pitcher Jim Morrow. Several batters later he was on third base, scoring on a wild pitch.

Both pitchers, Morrow of Novato, and Bob DePoli of Mill Valley, went the distance. Morrow struck out six Mill Valleyans, while DePoli sent two down swinging.

Mill Valley's only other threat came in the third inning when they filled the bases with only one out, but Morrow retired the next two batters he faced.

In the opening game of the day's festivities the Mill Valley National League beat the San Rafael American League, 5-3.

Mill Valley picked up seven hits, while their ace righthander Tom Fair scattered three hits among San Rafael. Fair struck out eight, but walked five.

Kevin Dwyer led Mill Valley with two hits, while Dan Chrisler was high in runs batted in with two.

Ball Player Killed

NEW YORK (AP) — Arnold Barrett, 23, was catching in an amateur baseball game at a Bronx ball park yesterday. The batter swung and missed a pitch. The bat struck Barrett and killed him.

Chamber Interviews Manager Applicants

Four applicants have been interviewed so far to replace George Krusz as manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, Jess J. France Jr., chamber president, said today.

Krusz announced his resignation Saturday. He will become assistant executive secretary of Principia Alumni Assn. of St. Louis, Mo.

Applicants for his job are from "major chambers of commerce" in Northern California, Washington and Arizona, France said.

"The men are very interested in the job, and selection of an applicant shouldn't take too long," the chamber president said.

17-MILE CONQUEST

Schoolgirl Finally Swims Chilly Tahoe

KINGS BEACH (AP) — Erline Christopherson, a 16-year-old Lodi girl, claimed victory today as the first woman to swim the chilly, 17-mile length of Lake Tahoe.

Erline's trainers said she reached the north shore yesterday afternoon 13 hours and 37 minutes after entering the water at the South Shore's Balwin Beach.

Unlike her futile try three weeks earlier, yesterday's swim was kept secret. Her father, Maurice Christopherson, said it was "because there were too many boats coming and going and chopping up the water before."

"Never at any time did I feel I was in trouble this time," Erline said after being returned to the South Shore by boat.

"The only tough going was the hour early in the morning when I hit some bad currents, and there were white caps the last half mile.

"Of course I thought the last couple of miles were endless. When I could see bottom but couldn't touch it seemed like I'd never make it."

But she said she couldn't stand when she did reach bottom because her knees hurt and she ended up swimming to land.

A cheering section swam the last half mile with her—her sister, Francine, and friends Mary DeMartini and life guard Jack Yerington.

"It was kind of funny to see the beach practically deserted," Francine said. One youngster who saw heavily-greased Erline climb out and collapse on the beach was frightened and ran, the sister reported.

Erline's father and mother followed the distance swim in a boat.

Erline, a high school junior, launched her swim at 2:40 a.m. her trainers said she reached a point slightly west of Dollar Point at 4:17 p.m.

Erline had to give up because of cramps and chills three miles short of the north shore three weeks earlier. Her first try more than a year earlier failed one mile short of the goal.

Pipers Franchise Sale Due Today

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Cleveland syndicate is reportedly ready to buy the Cleveland Pipers' new National Basketball Assn. franchise, and Pipers president George Steinbrenner was to present the deal to the league today for approval.

Howard Marks, advertising executive who heads the group, and Steinbrenner reportedly have agreed on a purchase price. The league is meeting to consider action on the Pipers, who have not met their commitments to the league.

"We will go along with the deal," said Marks, "if Steinbrenner and the National Basketball Association can deliver the franchise to us per agreement."

The syndicate is believed to be prepared to pay the league the $250,000 Steinbrenner owes for the franchise. It is understood the syndicate already has the backing of several NBA teams and therefore the deal is expected to be approved.

Cal Bowler Wins St. Paul Tourney

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Andy Marzich of Long Beach, Calif., held off a last minute surge by Pat Patterson of St. Louis last night to walk off with top prize money in the $20,000 St. Paul Open Bowling Tournament.

Marzich and Patterson met in the final game of the night, with the St. Louis star needing to win by 19 pins to take the title. Patterson did win, but only by a 244-243 count after finishing with a six-bagger.

Parnelli Jones Wins Midget Championship

FRESNO (AP)—Parnelli Jones of Torrance, the first automobile race driver to break the 150 miles per hour qualifying barrier at the Indianapolis Speedway, won a 50-lap United States Auto Club sanctioned midget car championship last night.

Jones finished two car lengths ahead of Billy Cotrell, Anaheim, followed closely by Bobby Marshman of Pottstown, Pa., fifth in this year's Indienapolis 500.

Jimmy Davies, Montecello, Ind., national midget champion the past two years, was fourth.

Dean Holden, Palo Alto, was fifth and Bob Unser, Albuquerque, N.M., was sixth.

Warriors Sign Wilt, Meschery And Rodgers

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Three men who form the heart of the San Francisco Warriors basketball team are already under contract for the 1962-63 season, according to General Manager Eddie Gotlieb.

They are the seven foot one-quarter inch Wilt Chamberlain, St. Mary's Tom Meschery and playmaker Guy Rodgers.

Chamberlain scored 4,029 points last season at Philadelphia, and averaged 50.4 per game to demolish all league records.

Meschery, currently in the service, expects to be discharged Oct. 23. He placed second to Chicago's Walt Bellamy for the NBA's Rookie of the Year" honors.

The swift Rodgers will be starting his fifth season in the league. He placed second last season to Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson in assists, registering an average of 7.9 per contest.

Defense Dominates Raider Scrimmage

SANTA CRUZ (UPI) — Coach Marty Feldman today tried to figure out whether the Oakland Raiders had a good defense, a bad offense, or both.

The defense has dominated every scrimmage so far and in a 90-minute battle Saturday, the offense was able to score only once.

That tally occurred when rookie quarterback Chon Gallegos hit Charlie Fuller with a 63-yard touchdown pass.

But the defense scored twice on its own. Halfback Mel Montalbo returned an intercepted pass 55 yards and 290-pound tackle Chuck McMurtry grabbed a loose fumble and scooted 18 yards to paydirt.

Bob Cerv On Waivers

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Colts optioned Pidge Browne to their Oklahoma City farm club and asked waivers on Bob Cerv today.

If waivers are obtained, Cerv will be given his unconditional release.

Second sacker Dick Schultze was leading sticker for the champions with two doubles and two singles while Dick Spackman contributed three hits, John Brookman a pair of doubles and Bill Buffalow two singles.

Jerry Daniele had a pair of safeties for the losers.

Wilson Defends Perpetual Trophy

By ALFRED MATSON

Grant Willson is a lad with a penchnt for getting his chores done with neatness and dispatch as evidenced by his racing bit on Saturday in defense of the Small Yacht Racing Assn. perpetual challenge trophy.

The Lake Merced Sailing Club had trophy lifting ambitions and delegated Rudy Hornung and his 110 Cliass Sunshine to fulfill the contract. The challenge was readily accepted by the wily Sausalitans and named Roulette of the same class as defender with owner Willson, skipper, and Bruce Easom as crew.

The date was July 28, course, Knox Buoy, a marker off Hurricane Gulch, Harding Rock and finish line. Best of two out of three races, first event at 11 a.m.

Winds were light, smooth seas and the usual overcast. Willson made a perfect start for the first race, worked into an early lead, was never in close quarters and finished breezing, well over a minute ahead of Hornung.

Second race, the same, only more so, the time difference three minutes. No third race. So the trophy remains in Sausalito for another year and mabye longer; all evidence proves their defense has decimated the invaders in every attack to date.

Most of the yachting activity on Sunday centered in Richardson Bay where the Sausalito Yacht Club held an SYRA regatta.

Health Facility Plan Due Board

A proposal for organization of a permanent Health Facility Planning Council will be put before Marin County supervisors tomorrow morning.

Function of the suggested group, as outlined by Fred F. Enemark as chairman of an informal organization which has explored the matter, would be to develop a coordinated community plan for hospital development in Marin County, through which it would be possible to mobilize required financing.

Enemark will suggest that the voluntary group might make up the new council, also that the county might participate with private interests in financing a professional survey based on a preliminary report already made by the California State Department of Public Health.

Marin County Hospital District trustees are prepared to participate in the survey, with possible aid from the Babcock Foundation as well, according to Enemark's letter.

Supervisor Peter Behr committed himself last Tuesday to an attempt to push through tomorrow the drafted and long-discussed open area zoning ordinance. But there is possibility of further delay for more public hearings.

Behr is also prepared, if county counsel has provided the requested draft, to press some sort of interim "freeze" on subdivisions and construction in and around the proposed Point Reyes National Seashore.

One of the letters on the correspondence agenda for tomorrow is from Thomas A. Brindley asking prohibition of further subdivisions in the Point Reyes area.

Donald R. Frost for technical reasons won't take over as acting public works director until later in the week, but he is expected to be on hand to help with a lengthy 1:30 p.m. agenda of public works matters.

Marin Postmen Join In Voting For AFL-CIO

Marin County postmen joined the national majority in voting in favor of AFL-CIO affiliated unions as their bargaining agents.

Out of 60 postal clerks eligible to vote last month, 38 voted and 33 of them favored the United Federation of Postal Clerks, according to John McWhorter, vice president of the clerks local.

Letter carriers in the county voted for the National Assn. of Letter Carriers, also an AFL-CIO union. There were 65 letter carriers in the county eligible to vote. McWhorter had no figures on this vote, but said it was an uncontested issue.

The unions will have no say in negotiating certain basic conditions such as wages and retirement benefits. These are set by Congress. But the unions will be able to bargain for such things as promotion policies, job assignments and vacation scheduling.

Clausen headquarters will be located after Wednesday at Third and B streets in San Rafael, maintained by the Republican County Central Committee.

Other Marin County appointments announced by Clausen were Mrs. Matthew A. Graham of San Anselmo, First District co-chairman for candidate scheduling and Mrs. Robert A. Alexander, Mill Valley, Marin County chairman for candidate scheduling.

Safari Salad

Virgin Islands' safari salad was created originally for all-day outings because its cooked oriental vegetables remain crisp for hours. Combine 1 cup of cooked drained red kidney beans with 1 cup of cooked, drained bean sprouts. Marinate overnight in french dressing to taste in refrigerator. The next day, add 1 cup of cooked bamboo shoots or water chestnuts, drained, and ¼ cup each of drained, chopped pimientos, olives, celery and green onions. Take along mayonnaise thinned to taste with soy sauce to add before serving. Serves 6 to 8.

LUSTROUS COTTON satin and lace are the fabrics suggested for sewing this bridal gown with easy-fitting bolero and widely belled skirt. Other fabrics choices might be organdy, dotted swiss and embroidered cotton.

WHAT ABOUT THE bridesmaids? This bouffant style features a kimono sleeved bolero for the ceremony and its strapless top makes it wearable on many occasions after the wedding festivities. Cotton voile, batiste or embroidered cotton are ideal choices for the gathered skirt with cotton satin or velveteen bodice.

P-TA Votes Loans For Students From Life Award Funds

The Board of Managers of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers announced that 26 college student loans, totaling $29,000, have been granted.

Loan applicants represented the fields of mathematics, law, pre-nursing, elementary education, physical education, English, zoology and dentistry.

The money is derived from the sale of honorary life memberships, the Congress award for outstanding service to children and youth. The board approved a total of $217,000 for honorary life memberships. Allocated were $146,000 to the 1962 student loan program, and $71,000 to scholarships and fellowships for 1963-64, which will be determined at the September board meeting.

At the July meeting in Los Angeles, the board voted for for active support of the $270 million state construction bond issue for state universities and colleges on the November ballot.

Leadership training workshops for district officers and chairmen, council presidents, and district area counselors will be held in San Francisco on Sept. 14.

The 1963 state convention will be held in Los Angeles May 8, 9, 10 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Billie Ross Becomes Bride In San Rafael Church Rite

The First Baptist Church in San Rafael was the setting for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Billie Juanita Ross and Dwayne Gene James of Mill Valley. Dr. Derward W. Deere officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Dr. Clayton K. Harrop, wore a lace over taffeta gown with lace paneled, floor length skirt. Her twin sisters, Ruth and Rubie Ross of Washington D. C. were her honor attendants, wearing rose red crepe dresses. Sue Ann Stickle of San Rafael was a bridesmaid, also wearing the rose red crepe style. The bridegroom's sister, Vicki James of Marysville, was flower girl.

His brother, Mike James, also of Marysville, was best man for the bridegroom, and ushering were another brother, Ronald James of Norwalk, Douglas Cox of Capitola and Charles Richardson of Mill Valley.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the church, and the couple left on a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. W. A. Ross of Roxie, Miss. and the late Mr. Ross, was graduated from Roxie High School and Mississippi College and is a student at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary here. She is the sister of Mrs. Arthur Wellman of Columbus, O. and Mrs. James W. Pettibone of Seattle.

Gene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. James of Marysville. He was graduated from high school in Sundown, Tex. and from Weyland Baptist College. He also is a student at Golden Gate Seminary and is owner of Marin Gardens.

'Recent Court Rulings Make The Undesirable Books Legal'

"Tropic of Cancer," Lady Chatterly's Lover," "Casanova's Memoirs," "Lolita." Do you recognize the book titles? They're best sellers, I'm sorry to say.

"Tropic of Cancer" tells of the experiences of a depraved American in and out of Parisian houses of prostitution. Tells all the details, using four-letter words.

"Lady Chatterly's Lover tells of a woman whose husband is incapable of becoming a father. With his consent she finds another man.

"Casanova's Memoirs" tells of the seductions by the famous libertine.

"Lolita" is a blow-by-blow report of a middle-aged man's adventures with a 12-year-old girl. They've made "Lolita" into a movie.

Until recently we had rules against selling books like these. Through a series of decisions, our courts have destroyed the rules. Now these books are legal. There seems to be no limit. I can testify that in the city where I work, many literate, impressionable teenagers are reading these four books. The books are turning up as factors in their sex delinquency.

Don't our judges care what happens to children? Don't lawmakers care? Why do the critics write long essays praising depravity and defending obscenity? Why do book publishers lend themselves to this nasty business?

Maybe I'm the one who's wrong. Is it a mistake for me to object? What do you think, friends?

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Critics don't object when the selers of dirty postcards are arrested. Why do they object when the pedders of printed pornography are arested?" R.F.

(A) They compartmentaize their thinking. However, to me, obcenity is obscenity, regardess of the medium in which it is presented.

Improve Figure

Want to improve your figure in five seconds? It's simple, yet so many women ignore this basic beauty secret. All you have to do is stand straight. It flattens your tummy, lifts your bustline and helps reduce that double chin.

Bridal Attendants

The idea of having attendants at the wedding is an ancient custom. Under old Roman law, 10 witnesses had to be present before the marriage was considered legal.

SEW SIMPLE

Waistband Made To Expand Is A Boon To Growing Youngster

By EUNICE FARMER

A waistband that grows is perfect for skirts, shorts, and slacks that must fit a growing child with a varying waistline. Before hand-sewing the inside of the waistband to your skirt, make two machine buttonholes at the back about 6 or 8 inches apart. You may slip a piece of elastic through the buttonholes, using the waistband of your skirt as a casing. The elastic must be measured to insure a snug fit.

You may machine stitch both ends of the elastic to the waistband, or you may fasten a hook and eye to one end. When it is unhooked, you can press the waistband flat, and it also makes it easier to change the length of the elastic as your child grows.

The waistband that grows is not an original idea of mine. It was suggested by Mrs. E. J. Reil, Manson, Ia., who is being sent a Tailor Trix pressing board for the best suggestion of the week.

"Would you please tell me where to take in the proper amount on the back of a skirt pattern? My skirt always seems too full across the back where the darts end and doesn't shape like skirts should."

Mrs. J. W. T.

Dear Mrs. J. W. T.

The center back seam is seldom taken in. If you do adjust this seam, the same amount must be taken in down the entire length of your skirt or you will change the grain line.

Your problem seems to be in the darts. The deeper the darts are stitched, the more shaping you have formed. Since the back of your skirt should be relatively flat, try making the darts the same length, but slightly narrower at the widest part. Your skirt should be perfectly flat at the ends of the darts in back, without any pucker or shape at the ends.

"What is the quickest and most accurate method of transferring the pattern markings to printed or textured materials and also garments that are to be lined?" Mrs. A. J. R.

Dear Mrs. A. J. R.

These markings may be made with colored chalk on the wrong side of your fabirc. Darts can be marked by making a ¼ inch clip at each side of the end of the dart, and chalk mark the point where dart ends. It is best to mark with tailor tacks any markings from your pattern that you will not be using immediately.

When your garment is to be completely lined, you will not have to mark your garment fabric at all, simply place all your markings on the lining itself. A tracing wheel would be satisfactory for markings on the lining.

Give your family room, child's room and your bedroom a lift for summer: An inexpensive fabric can be the magic ingredient to perk up your home. Gay checked cotton gingham makes an unusual frame for a group of pictures. Pictures may be floral prints, nursery prints, cowboy, old cars, or whatever.

Cover a piece of hardboard 4 to 6 inches larger than the picture with gingham, possibly using a color to harmonize or contrast with the predominate color in the picture.

Glue or staple the fabric to the wrong side of the board and then glue the picture in the center of the board and group several together above a couch, bed, or table. You may also cover throw pillows with the same fabric.

Harmony Counts

To avoid an artificial look, make sure your eyebrow pencil harmonizes with the color of your hair. If you're an ash blonde, your eyebrow pencil should be gray. If you're a golden blonde or a brownette, a light shade of brown is suitable for your eyebrows. Brunettes and redheads should seek dark brown shades in eyebrow pencils, while those with raven black hair can use the deepest gray shades. Jet black brows are suitable only for masquerades.

WHEN LYNN THALL, left, made her debut with the Ice Follies Wednesday in San Francisco she became the first "second generation Ice Follette" to join the show. Her mother, right, now Mrs. Marston Thall of San Anselmo, skated with the show in 1942 and 1943. Lynn skates four numbers each night and is rehearsing the new show.

Marin Skater Scores A First

BY BARBARA HOSMER

A San Anselmo girl had the distinction of being the first daughter of a member of the Ice Follettes to join the ice show, when 17 year-old Lynn Thall made her debut skating in the chorus last week.

Lynn's mother, Mrs. Marston Thall of San Anselmo, skated with the Ice Follies in 1942 and 1943 as Viola Miles, and she is delighted that her eldest child is following in her "skate tracks."

IT'S A wonderful experience for a girl, being independent, and learing to get along with all the girls in the show as you travel during the year," she says, "I went over with Lynn last week and as I stood backstage it all seemtd to me just exectly the same."

Lynn became a little petrified during her first show Wednesday, her mother said, because suddenly she found a substitute skater in the spot on the ice where she was supposed to be, but it all turned out all right. "She had had only one rehearsal, during a lunch hour," her mother remarked.

BUT NOW her skating schedule is so full that Lynn has moved to a San Francisco apartment to be closer to Winterland for the four days rehearsals 10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m., the regular show every night but Mondays, the two matinee shows Saturdays and Sunday and rehearsals for the new show which will open in September and go on the road until summer.

Mrs. Thall says that road travel, which is all by train, is much easier than when she was with the show. "It was during the war and we traveled in such things as baggage cars with seats put in—any way we could. The only reason we were allowed to travel at all was that we put on the show for servicemen and for war-bond drives."

MRS. THALL says that she never urged Lynn to join the Ice Follies. "I put her on skates at the age of 3 and we just had fun." But she adds that ice skating has always been Lynn's main sport, though she has enjoyed swimming, skiing, hiking and surfing along with the activities at Sir Francis Drake High School, from which she was graduated last month.

Her mother says that credit for Lynn's skating guidance belongs to former Ice Follies stars Ray and Nadine Schramm who have coached Lynn all the way at their San Anselmo skating rink. And it was they who arranged for her try-out for the show with Roy Shipstad, and Nadine who drove her over.

ALSO IN that show was Lynn's 14 year-old brother, Bill, who skates well, but, according to his mother, is more interested in playing softball. Mrs. Thall, too, has continued her skating until recently when her time has been taken up caring for her 3 year-old, Mark, and 7 month-old daughter, Terri.

Barbara Nerviani Recites Vows With Jim Thompson At Home

The San Anselmo home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Nerviani was the setting for the wedding of their daughter Barbara and Jim Thompson of San Anselmo. The Rev. Charles Orr of San Geronimo officiated at the July 21 double ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father, Barbara recited vows in a short gown of white chiffon and lace. Jeanne Nerviani, her sister's only attendant, wore a blue and white embossed cotton dress.

Dennis Baccic of Fairfax served as best man for the bridegroom, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Thompson of San Anselmo.

After the wedding a reception was given at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The bride was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed by the California Packing Corp. in San Francisco. She is the sister of Ronald Nerviani and the granddaughter of Mrs. Jeanne Marois of San Anselmo and Mrs. Clorinda Nerviani of Fairfax.

Jim was also graduated from Drake High School and is employed with W. G. Thompson Painting Contractors. He is the grandson of Mrs. W. G. Thompson of San Mateo.

After a wedding trip through Northern California the couple will reside in their new home in Fairfax.

Newlyweds Return To Marin

Mr. and Mrs. William Windes, who were married at Holy Innocent's Church in Corte Madera, have returned from a wedding trip to Festus, Miss. to live in Marin.

The bride, the former Jan Lafferty, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lafferty of Corte Madera. For her wedding she chose a waltz length white gown of organza over lace, and her maid of honor, Marilyn Miller, wore a yellow organza dress.

Leo Barbour served as best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Windes of Festus.

The bride attended College of Marin and Chico State College. Her husband is stationed with the Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Three Counties' Voters Get Bay Area Rapid Transit Plan

The long-discussed Bay Area Rapid Transit plan now is heading for the November ballot in San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. One day after the last board of supervisors involved had endorsed submission of the 792 million dollar project to the voters, formation of "Citizens for Rapid Transit" was announced to campaign for the bond issue enabling construction of the tri-county transportation system.

Originally, Marin, San Mateo and Santa Clara counties were included in the vast scheme for rapid passenger movement. Then San Mateo County bowed out—which automatically cut off feasibility of Santa Clara County service.

Marin was heavily counted upon as a part of the system. Its continued growth of commuters was projected as an important part of the comprehensive project. But after weeks of inspections, studies, hearings, testimony by engineers from both sides and many statements, directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District decided against use of the bridge as a transit crossing to Marin. And by request of the other counties, Marin's Board of Supervisors reluctantly withdrew from the transit district.

Certainly it was a blow to thousands of Marinites—but withdrawal was necessary to permit formation of positive plans.

However, need for faster and more adequate commuter transit grows apace in Marin County. And a connection with a Bay area-wide transportation system is inevitable—be it via a new bridge, water-borne carrier or whatever develops in this fast-moving age of scientific and engineering advancement.

Meantime, all success to the campaign undertaken by "Citizens for Rapid Transit" in three counties.

The Flower For Summer

Zinnias are a colorful clan. And the whole varied family likes warm summer days and is just starting bloom now.

These attractive flowers with their bright hues are as vividly colorful as a matador's costume. This is quite appropriate because some of our finest zinnias are natives of Mexico.

Their range of size is as great as their range of colors. The giants have blossoms about six inches across, while the dwarf varieties are quite small.

Look for these bright spots in Marin's gardens from now on, until the cold weather comes.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BIG RESPONSE TO FISHERMAN'S SOS

No help was in sight when flames leaped from the engine room of a 60-foot boat in the Pacific Ocean, 15 miles off Oceanside.

The craft's lone occupant, a man on a fishing trip, sent an urgent radio call for aid to fight a fire that he could not put out by himself. Soon afterwards the following rescue units responded: Two Coast Guard cutters . . . two Navy destroyers . . . a Navy submarine . . . an airplane . . . and a helicopter.

The fisherman, uninjured, was flown ashore by the helicopter.

In a world beset by selfishness, hatred and brutality, it is always heartening to find that goodness can generously reassert itself in the most unexpected places and circumstances.

Be on the lookout for opportunities to be of Christlike service to others and you will be doing your part to restore divine love to a world sadly in need of it.

"Be not slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." (Romans 12:11)

Keep me alert, O loving Savior, to every chance to prove that love can transform the world.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Of The Seven Major Tongues In World English Most Understood

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Although the world has some 6,000 languages, half of the people on earth speak one of seven major tongues. Of these, English is by far the most widely understood.

France is considered the international feminine fashion center but a recent poll in Paris revealed that men spend more money on clothing than women do.

Prosperity note: Americans spend more each year to buy and operate automobiles than the combined total national income of Canada and Mexico.

Blue for dunning: Only one tenant in five pays his rent promptly on the first of the month. Landlords have found they get their rent money back sooner if they mail out notices on blue instead of white paper.

Our quotable notables: "By all means marrry; if you get a good wife, you'll be happy; if you get a bad one, you'll become a philosopher," —Socrates.

Lost on purpose: According to Interpol—International Police Organization — there are more than four million missing persons in the world —most of them husbands.

How old is your buggy? The average age of U. S. automobiles last year was 5.89 years, that of trucks 7.83 years.

Household hint: Tell your wife that if she wants to "touch up" your wash-wear clothing after laundering, to iron them lightly wrong side out. That'll avoid surface shine.

Wisecrack of the week: Crooner Mike Clifford says his girl friend serves him television dinners that melt in his mouth. He only wishes she'd defrost them first.

Lore of games: Playing cards once were the diversion only of the nobility and were hand - painted. In 1415 the Duke of Milan had artist Marziano da Tartona execute a personal deck of cards for him and paid him 1,500 pieces of gold for the job.

A CAUTION to the wasteful: "You have a bank, and its name is time. Every morning it credits you with 86,400 seconds. Every night it rules off, as lost, whatever of this you have failed to invest. It carries over no balances.

Each day it opens a new account for you. Each night it burns the records of the day. If you fail to use the day's deposits, the loss is yours."

OPPORTUNITY: In a recent year only 139 Americans reported earning a taxable income of a million dollars. Why don't you listen to your wife's advice and become the 140th?

It was Robert Frost who observed, "the world is full of willing people; some willing to work, the rest willing to let them."

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

After Orio Rosetti of Lavaroni's ranch near Novato had withdrawn $300 from his bank deposit intending to give it to three slickers who said they could increase it to $1,000 with a few magic words, Sheriff Walter B. Sellmer arrested the trio and educated Rosetti on some facts of financial life.

West Novato residents demanded banning of small-lot subdivisions, their special target being John Novak's effort to put 50 homes on a 10-acre tract.

20 YEARS AGO

Marin County School Supt. Henry E. Greer said many county teachers are in a dilemma, living out of walking distance from their schools and being unable to get on rationing boards' eligible lists for new automobile tires.

Marin landlords complained loudly over the rent freeze, saying last March's ceiling is unfair due to heavy influx of tenants and sharp demand for houses.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Reyes Coverage Irks Ex-Reader

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

On several occasions I have found myself in strong opposition to the editorial policy of the Independent-Journal. With the Tuesday, July 24 editorial, for the first time, I feel constrained to communicate my extreme objection to you.

What is undoubtedly the major issue of current importance in Marin County, the passage of the Point Reyes National Seashore legislation in the House of Representatives, has been given only cursory reporting and no editorial recognition. The three San Francisco newspapers provided more extensive individual one-day coverage than has appeared in the Independent-Journal in the past several days. The editorial department seems to be more interested in the fortunes of private business than in the broader aspects of social responsibilities.

Your laudatory editorial on the opening of a new drive-in should rightfully be preceded by the advice "advertisement." The responsibility for providing news and editorial service to the people of Marin County is not, in my estimation, properly discharged in this manner.

I would appreciate your accepting this as my cancellation of subscription, effective immediately.

Will Coroner Be In New Center?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Am enclosing a letter, which I would appreciate your printing.

Have been a reader of your paper for 35 years, but never before addressed a "letter to the editor."

Also, there have been no letters written on this matter or this public office.

In February a vote was taken by our Supervisors instructing Mr. Frank Keaton if he were to remain Coroner and Public Administrator, he must give up his interest in his mortuaries. Supervisor Castro refused to vote. June 15th another vote was taken, Supervisor Peter Behr was our only Supervisor with enough fortitude to keep his word.

As a taxpayer, I do not feel that I and other taxpayers should subsidize an undertaker in a mortuary business to the amount of $9500 per year. This good salary from taxpayers' pockets should be a full time job, not as a feeder for an undertaker's own business. Also keep in mind the Public Administrator receives a percentage fee, plus expenses to administrate on estates. Also the taxpayers pay a salary for public administrator.

In our recent election the gentleman who opposed Mr. Keaton was little known to the voters, but polled 15,074 votes. Which means 15,000 voters dissatisfied with our present Coroner and Public Administrator.

Now, when our county offices are moved into our beautiful new county building, I am wondering if our Supervisors will order the coroner with his books and records into a county office. Perhaps some of our citizens would like to view the books of the public administrator, in a public office, not in Keaton's Mortuary.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A motorcycle cop stopped a driver who was tootling up the West Side Drive of Manhattan at breakneck speed, and gave him a ticket. "I clocked you doing 75 miles an hour," said the cop grimly. The driver nodded cheerfully, then asked, "Couldn't you make it 90 an hour, officer? I'm trying to sell this car."

Wayne Howell and Charlie Rice have been playing a new game called "Improbable Authors" that may intrigue intellectual Try-and-Stop-Me readers. You'll get the idea from the following samples:

War and Peace by Pee-Wee Reese; Finnegan's Wake by Veronica Lake; Ivanhoe by Brigitte Bardot; Charley's Aunt by Immanuel Kant; High Tor by Toots Shor; Decline and Fall by Lucille Ball; Peyton Place by Princess Grace; The Peppermint Twist by Franz Liszt; and The Polka-Dot Bikini by G. Puccini.

Cynthia Lindsay, viewing an exhibition of the high-bounding Ukrainian Dancers at the Metropolitan Opera House, overheard this exchange by two little old ladies seated directly behind her: First old lady: "Well, I must say they're mighty nimble. Second old lady: They have to be, you know. They don't have any money.

A Harvard junior, back from an expensive weekend at Vassar, composed this melancholy couplet:

Cat Old Enough To Vote Shares Space With King Richard And Lief

TAD ALVORD was telling us the other day that his grandmother, who lives in Inverness, has a cat who is going on 21, loves life, is always hungry and sleeps on the living room table.

Twenty years old is very old for a cat, said Tad, himself about 14. One cat year compares to seven for a human, he added, and said that would make Mummy 140 years really. Mummy, he said, has spent her whole life in Inverness, never traveled. She is not fat. She is lean.

Mummy is so called because she didn't fool around with planned parenthood before she had four families of kittens. From then on, Tad's grandmother did the planning by having a medical change in life for the cat. Pet expert Harriet Wilton says the average cat lives 12-13 years and she's heard of some living 15-18 and one to 22. Tad's grandmother says her cat will "probably be here 20 years longer."

RIGGED WITH FANCY fishing poles, Gary Walter and some friends went fishing in Sausalito. All they got were tiny shiners. Then a Chinese-American boy, about eight, arrived. He pulled a popsickle stick from his pocket, unwound some dirty, knotted white string with a safety pin on the end, borrowed some bait from the boys and proceeded to haul in a 20-inch perch.

A sad note about the little white boat which sat so many years on shore in Sausalito, is that it is going to sea without any ports. In the process of being moved from the 500 block on Bridgeway, someone in dark of night, stole them.

NEW OWNER Nancy Campbell says Lindsay Cage hoisted the boat—called "Bad Manors"—and hauled it. Artist Clayton Lewis is redesigning it for a houseboat. With its vanishing from the main drag undoubtedly goes many stories—Enid Foster has put on plays in it; Juanita Musson lived there; it was a dress shop and a gift shop. Most recently Keane's Girls with the large sad eyes distracted the tourists. Next chapter for the land will be apartments. For the old Bad Manors, probably more stories. Who knows?

Vacation this year was hot, dusty and good. All went well until we were bitten on the right heel by a giant ant and our eyes swelled up for three days. My wife said it was the spring water.

Nevertheless, there is something escape-ful about a vacation that nothing else quite matches. We escaped into a world of swords, daggers, King Richard II and mighty Lief Erickson.

OUR SONS, Richard and Lief, also brought in Sir Francis Drake and Sir Francis Knight of Haddock, but they played fuzzy parts.

Mighty Lief, who stormed King Richard's castle, broke about half his wooden swords. Band aids flowed from the band aid box. There was no blood. Some fighting was done with lances made from branches of wild cherry trees.

Swords are easy to make. You just take a board, chop it to size with a hatchet, point it and nail on a cross piece. There are two sorts—Viking swords, which are thick and roundish, and Sir Francis Drake swords, which are short and pointed. They all must be strong since there's nothing worse than splintered swords.

When action lulled, King Richard became a sword and dagger and tool maker. In this job he made a necklace of pounded nails for his mother and one frog spear. Mighty Lief kept complaining about the price of swords today. "Ten cents worth of fools gold is too much," he said.

If you want to escape, a wonderful way is to go to a hot and dusty place with someone such as King Richard and mighty Lief and make a few swords. But watch out for those giant ants.

Stalled Kennedy Program Is Signal For Restatement To Public

WASHINGTON — The Republicans are, I believe, right when they say that in his relations with Congress the President's problem is how to rally to his domestic program the large Democratic majorities in both Houses. Moreover, this problem will remain if in November the Democrats have a success in that they do not lose any seats, and even if they have a triumph and capture five or ten Republican seats.

I do not see how it can be doubted that the resistance in Congress, involving about a third of the Democrats and about all Republicans, rests on powerful and stubborn feelings among voters.

NOBODY KNOWS, I suppose, the actual division of the voters between those wanting reforms and innovations and those opposing more federal spending and federal activity. The resistance must be near to half the voters. It is, I believe, an unwritten rule of our Constitution that important reforms and innovations fail unless they command at least a two-thirds majority.

The real question is why so large a part of the public has become, in Sen. Goldwater's sense of the word, conservative. The primary reasons are, I believe, earthy, not ideological.

ANTAGONISM to government, which at the extreme is rancorous, is mainly in resentment against taxes; especially visible direct taxes, levied for a huge military establishment and for welfare and development programs of the federal, state, and local governments. The tax bite is resented because it hurts, and it hurts because we have for some years been paying for defense, welfare, and development out of a sluggish economy.

The resentment over the tax bite is aggravated by the chiseling and the corruption and the injustices which turn up in the administration of the big spending program—defense contracts, farm price supports, stockpiling, unemployment relief, public assistance, etc., etc. Even though the scandals are on the fringes, there are enough big and little scandals in almost every town to nourish feeling that government is a corrupter of morals.

THESE ARE main sources of opposition to big government and big spending. This opposition cannot be overcome by trying to win the votes of the beneficiaries of a welfare measure like medicare. Indeed, such concentration on welfare measures obscures and distorts the meaning of Kennedy's election and of the New Frontier. Medicare, for example, is highly desirable. But it should not be made the crucial issue on which the fate of the Administration is staked.

There is only one way in which the President can induce the Congress to give him the measures to get the economy moving. That is by going to the people, persuading large numbers that in a revivified and dynamic economy lies their only hope of carrying comfortably the necessary defense burden and the inescapable burden of welfare and development in our rapidly changing society.

West had the right idea when he opened a trump. He had foreseen that dummy might turn up with three trumps and only two hearts. It would take persistent trump leads to prevent South from ruffing a heart in dummy.

STILL HOPING

South won the first trump and returned the nine of hearts, still hoping for a ruff.

West won with the queen of hearts and smugly returned a second trump. So far so good.

South saw that he would lose the race and decided to switch directions. He won the second trump, cashed the ace of diamonds and led another diamond toward dummy.

NO TEARS

West stepped up with the king of diamonds and triumphantly led a third trump. Now South could never ruff a heart in dummy!

South didn't shed any tears over this defense. He won the third trump in dummy and cashed the queen of diamonds to get rid of the singleton jack of spades.

He gave up, in all, only three hearts and one diamond, making his doubled contract for game and rubber.

MENTAL PICTURE

West had a good mental picture of the South hand from the bidding. Clearly South had two five-card suits. When South showed up with two diamonds there was room for only one spade in the South hand.

West had to make sure of the spade trick before leading a third trump. After taking the king of diamonds, West should have shifted to a spade.

Russ Successful In Causing Lung Cancer

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UPI) — To the world cancer research comes a gift from Russia. It is a method of systematically causing lung cancer in experimental animals.

This has been an urgent need of cancer research for a long time. To study the origins and development of any cancer in any detail you first must be able to produce it experimentally.

Lung cancer has been the hardest type to cause in animals. There have been many efforts but few successes and none which was reliably repeatable.

Dr. L. M. Shabad of Soviet Russia's Academy of Medical Sciences revealed his successes where so many have failed in the technical journal of the national cancer institute, which is part of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

This journal is read in cancer research laboratories throughout the world. Why Shabad chose it for the transmission of his gift is not known. He has become a respected figure to Western cancer scientists during the current period of scientific interchanges between Russia and the West.

Cancer scientists everywhere now have an apparently reliable method of producing for experimental study a lung cancer which is very similar to the one rising incidence among human beings, particularly among males.

Shabad said in his report: "The increased incidence of pulmonary cancer in all economically developed countries and the possible significance of inhalation of carcinogenic (cancer-causing) pollutants in its causation require investigations to test in animals the actions of such air pollutants as exhaust gases, tobacco smoke, radioactive substances and so forth."

For his experimental animal he used the rat. Through a tube inserted into the windpipe he implanted a cancer-causing chemical into its lung tissue.

But there were very few "takes": Evidently the cancer-causing substances were washed away by the defensive mechanisms of lungs. Shabad mixed his cancer-causer with powdered black ink which both marked the spot of implantation and held the chemical in place long enough for it to be absorbed.

His techniques, which he described in detail, caused cancer in about 30 per cent of the rats subjected to them, he said. Cellularly and in behavior the induced cancers closely resembled human lung cancer. His cancer-causing chemical was a hydrocarbon.

"It must be emphasized the carcinogenic hydrocarbons are known to be air pollutants in exhaust of automobiles, in tobacco smoke, and in smoke industrial pollutions now under suspicion as possible causes of human lung cancer," he said.

Drag Racer Is Killed

FREMONT (AP) — Drag race driver Douglas R. Royal, 28, San Antonio, Texas, was killed yesterday when another racer hit his stalled machine from behind.

Fremont Police Sgt. Roger Neuman said the second car was driven by Terrence C. Erven, 21, San Leandro. The mishap occurred at the Fremont Drag strip on a quarter-mile track.

Neuman said Erven suffered multiple fractures and was in critical condition. Another police officer, Scott Baggett, suffered severe burns when he tried to get Erven out of his burning car.

After Royal's machine stalled, another Texan, Paul Justice, 36, tried to shove Royal out of the lane with another car. Justice saw Erven's machine coming and pulled out of the way.

Erven's car knocked Royal's machine 193 feet, Neuman said.

An investigation is continuing. Some 2,000 persons witnessed the crash.

College Student Dies Fighting Mendocino Fire

UKIAH (AP) — The death of a young fire fighter yesterday marred an otherwise optimistic report by forestry officials concerning scattered timber blazes in Mendocino County and Mendocino National Forest.

The dead man was identified as John D. Coleman, 20, a Yuba College student from Chico spending summer working for the U. S. Forest Service. A spokesman said Coleman was killed by a falling tree snag while battling one of several small blazes in the Mendocino Forest near the Glenn-Tehama County line.

U. S. forestry officials said the fires were contained.

State officials reported two larger fires controlled in Mendocino County. The first, near Horse Ridge, burned over 150 acres. The other near Laytonville burned 110 acres.

Steller sea lions are superb swimmers and fishers. They dive as deep as 600 feet for food. Though a grown bull may weigh a ton and fearlessly charge a man, it can be frightened off by the mere opening of an umbrella.

The mound builders, a family of birds in Australia, are hatched fully feathered. They fly and live an idependent life from the moment they emerge from their eggshells.

State Highway Costs Increase

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State highway construction costs increased by 15 per cent in the second quarter of 1962, according to the California Division of Highways.

The California Highway Construction Cost Index now tands at 271.1, an increase of 35.4 points over the first quarter of the year.

High bids on a 12-million-dollar project in the Sierra were blamed for more than half the unusually high increase. However, highway engineers said they are faced with a trend toward higher prices on nearly all projects.

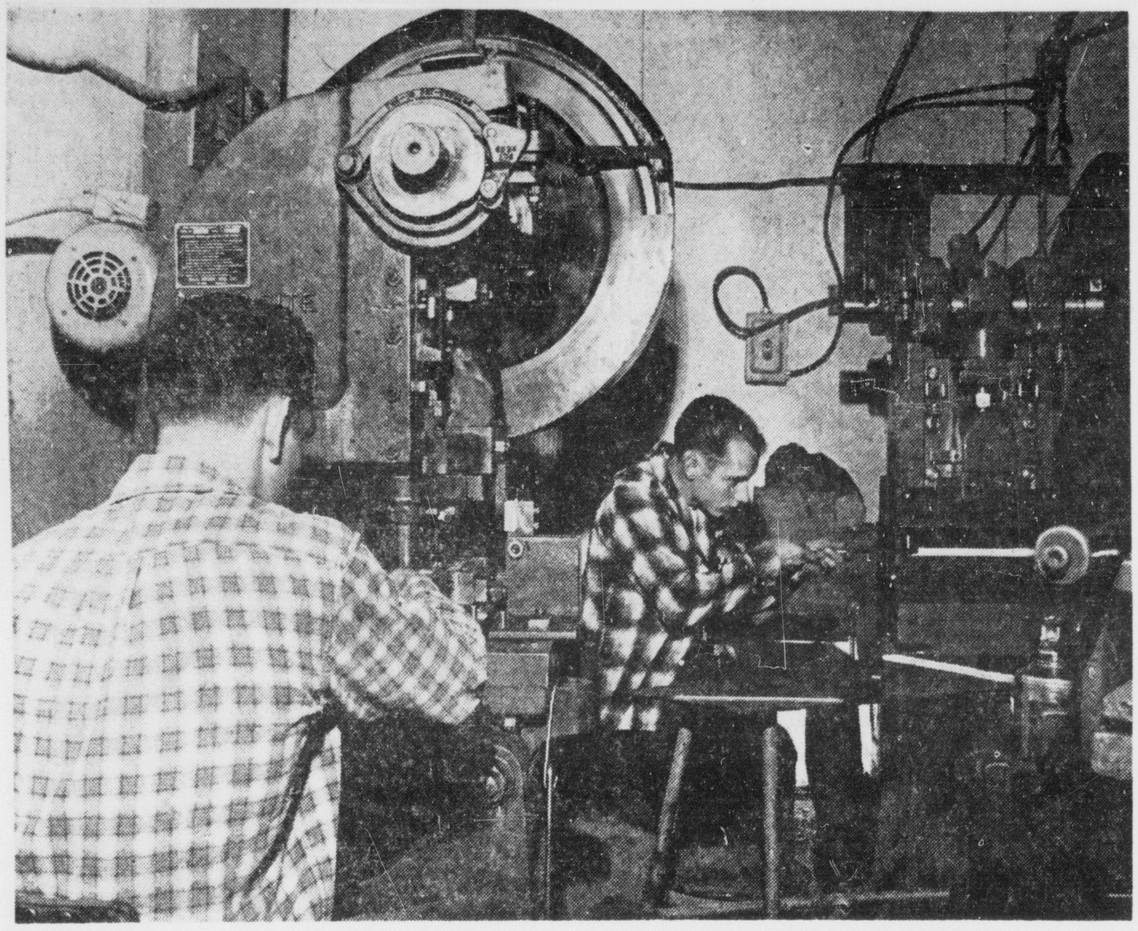
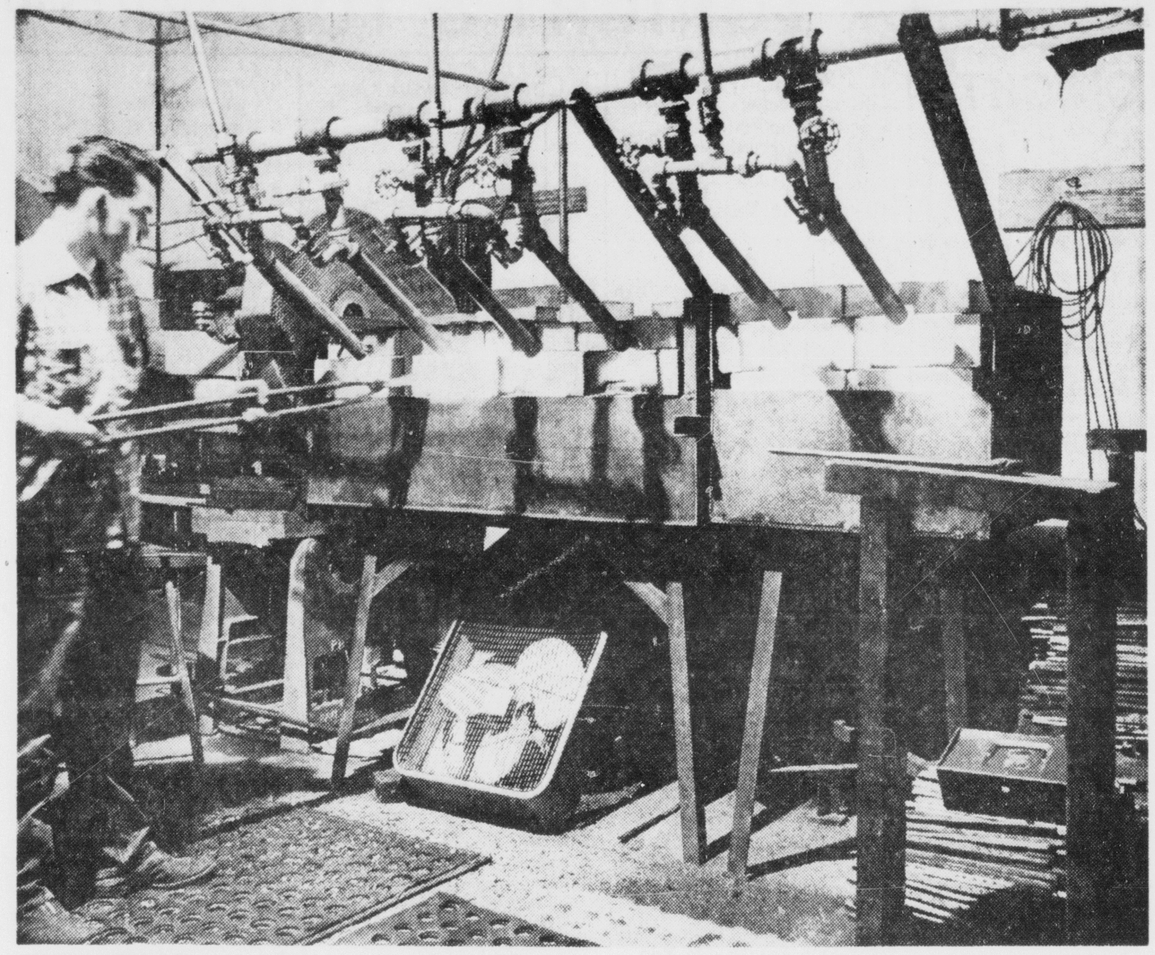
To Sonoma State

Beverly A. Howard of 490 Calle De La Mesa, Novato, has been admitted to Sonoma State College's first freshman class, the dean of admissions announced. She is a San Rafael High School graduate.



TEAM WORK—The Hyatt boys, Steven (left) and Douglas, work together to groove steel bars then punch them for nail holes. With these two drop forges and a machine for hand bending to the finished shape the Hyatts keep turning out a steady flow of horseshoes.



FIRST STEP—Steven Hyatt heats a two-foot bar of steel as the first step in grooving, punching and bending it into two horseshoes. Note fan to aid in keeping shop cool.

A REDWOOD EMPIRE INDUSTRY

Horseshoe Factory Thrives In Sonoma

The horseshoe is not a relic of the 19th Century. More horses are living today then ever before, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and their pedal extremities are receiving more care and attention.

Veterinary science determined long ago that a horseshoe can be as uncomfortable as a human shoe—and the horse has twice as many feet. The result has been that in recent years more attention has been directed to the comfort and wearability of a horse's shoes. This is especially true of a race horse where an uncomfortable or poorly-designed shoe might result in losing a race.

Jack Hyatt, who had been shoeing horses in California race tracks for 22 years, was not satisfied with the way the shoes fit the horses. So five years ago, he decided that the best way to improve the design was to manufacture the shoes himself. Nine months ago, he moved his successful business from Garden Grove in Southern California to Sebastopol in Northern California.

"I didn't like the smog down there," he said.

Today, Hyatt with his two sons, Douglas and Steven, is busily engaged in converting a former apple dehydrating plant near Sebastopol into a horseshoe manufacturing plant.

"The plant is now in full production and business this year is better than it's ever been," says Hyatt. The secret of his success lies in the design improvements he has worked out for his wide range of horseshoes. Much time and effort are devoted to experimenting with new designs.

The steel used by Hyatt in manufacturing horseshoes is a special analysis manganese-carbon bar section rolled at Bethlehem Steel Co.'s South San Francisco plant. The bars are sheared into two foot lengths, each sufficient to make two horseshoes, and lowered to the hot-work shop. Here they are heated in gas-fired furnaces, grooved, punched for nail holes, and bent to shape. Stamping is performed on two powered drop forges.

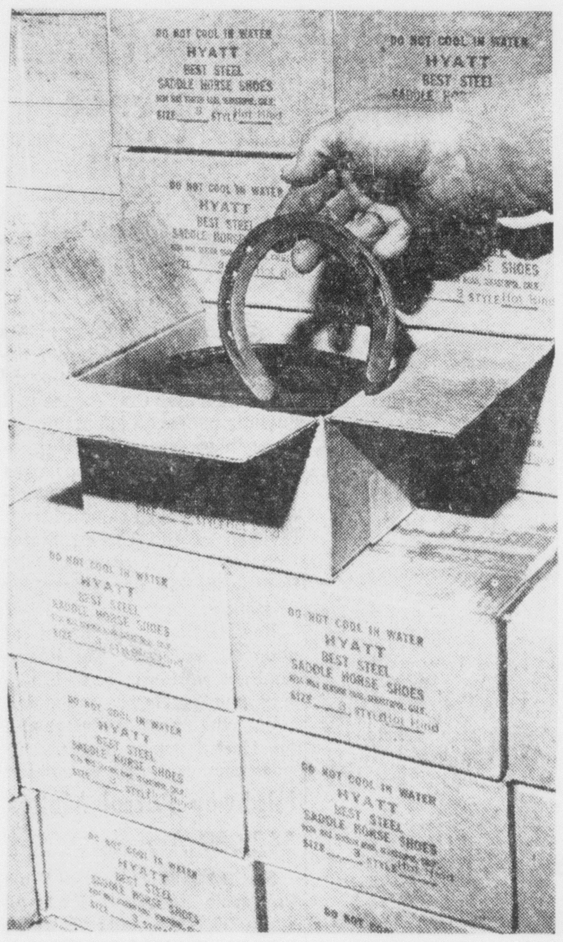
The bars are reheated before hand bending around a die to the finished shape. While these are the principal operations in turning out simple plate shoes for saddle horses, additional steps are employed to produce the finished product.

Finishing operations all depend on the type of shoe desired. Involved are such operations as the pressure welding addition of the toe, swedging for the slick heel, the hind sticker or the hind block and grinding. The finishing of race horseshoes is extremely important.

For example, the sticker on the right side of a race horseshoe gives the horse that added outside traction which is so important in a race. Race horseshoes are lighter in weight than other types. Before packaging, all shoes are passed through a cleaning solvent with an oil base to prevent rusting.

Currently, the Hyatt company is rushing orders for a special shoe used in horse shows and rodeos throughout the country. This is a heavier and thicker type of shoe. Race horseshoes come in five sizes—No. three to No. seven, and there are six sizes in saddle horseshoes—No. four to No. nine.

The Hyatt company is one of three horseshoe manufacturing companies in this country and the only one on the Pacific Coast. The company sells to more than 100 dealers throughout the United States who distribute through many outlets, including even drug stores and super markets.



FINISHED PRODUCT—This is the end result of the Hyatts' labor, the finished horseshoe, ready in well-marked boxes to head for corals and stables across the country.

CLOSE WATCH—Sebastopol manufacturer Jack Hyatt watches closely as his son, Douglas, bends a horseshoe to its finished shape around a die. The business is a father and sons enterprise.
